Letter Writing

by Julie Winrich

“Are we starting to commend ourselves again? Or do we not, like some, need written credentials or letters of recommendation to you or from you?”

— II Corinthians 3:1

How do you feel when you get a note, card, or letter from someone?

God’s apostles wrote many letters of encouragement, instruction, and connection with believers. I don’t know about you, but when I receive a letter, note, or card, it makes me feel special and loved. Imagine the recipients of the apostle’s letters. Think they felt encouraged and special? I pray they did, because that was the intent.

Writing a letter to someone doesn’t need to be perfect. It doesn’t take a lot of talent. You just need to write from the heart. I believe we should reach out to others to show them they are not alone and they are thought of, encouraged, and special. We are God’s children and should follow His advice and be like His apostles.

God bless all of us.

Journaling:

When was the last time you reached out to someone with a note, card, or letter?

When you write to someone, how do you think it makes them feel?
