

QUESTIONS FOR HOLY HERESY 1: GRACE ALONE / SOLA GRATIA (PART 2)

JAN 29/30, 2025

Discussion Questions on the Implications and Application of “Sola Gratia” for Contemporary Faith

1. Grace and Self-Worth: How does the doctrine of “Sola Gratia” challenge modern struggles with self-worth, performance-based identity, or the need to “earn” approval?

2. Spiritual Confidence: In what ways does “Sola Gratia” provide assurance of salvation for believers today? How does it address fear or doubt about one’s standing before God?

3. Grace and Good Works: How should the belief in salvation by grace alone shape a Christian’s motivation for good works and service?

4. Cultural Misunderstandings: How can Christians respond to the perception that “Sola Gratia” encourages complacency or “cheap grace”?

5. Interpersonal Relationships: How does the principle of unmerited grace inform how Christians should treat others, particularly in forgiveness and reconciliation?
6. Evangelism and Mission: How does “Sola Gratia” influence the way Christians share the gospel, especially in a culture that values self-reliance?
7. Grace in a Secular World: How can the message of God’s sovereign grace speak to a world often defined by meritocracy and conditional acceptance?
8. Church Community: How should the doctrine of “Sola Gratia” shape the culture and practices of a local church?
9. Suffering and Sovereignty: How does “Sola Gratia” help Christians understand God’s role in suffering and trials, particularly when life feels undeservedly difficult?
10. Faith and Gratitude: What practical habits can believers cultivate to live out a life of gratitude in response to God’s grace? How can “Sola Gratia” shape daily Christian living?
