Haiti Christmas Packages

UCI Christmas Bags were finally delivered!! After many long months of waiting, praying, and pleading with the customs agents, the second container of Christmas gifts and nutritious meals was finally released from customs. The truck made the difficult trip up the mountain that had been impassable due to excessive rain and mudslides. It had to pass through barricades that the local people had put up to protest the horrible conditions. God knows the reason for all the delays, and His will is perfect. Kristie says, "Know that each child received their gift and was blessed." Please check out the bulletin board in the Fellowship Hall to see the pictures of the children receiving their bags at Garete Church in Haiti.

Mompremier Visit

Make plans to join us for worship on Sunday, July 19, as JeanJean and Kristie Mompremier join us. We support them as they lead the ministries of UCI Haiti.

Northwestern College International Host Families Needed

International host families provide a great opportunity to build relationships with someone from a distinctly different culture. Host families typically attend their student's events, occasionally invite them to join the family for meals or outings, and offer supportive friendship. If you're interested in serving in this way, or have any questions, please contact our host family coordinator, Kelly Schmidt at 712-707-7412 or kelly.schmidt@nwcioa.edu.

"Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; His faithful love endures forever."
