“Thoughts on Spiritual Warfare”

by Pastor Robert Schrader

I don't know about you, but I don't usually think of 90s movies as being particularly profound. Yet, the same decade that produced less-than-philosophical classics like Wayne's World, Forrest Gump, and Toy Story, also spawned the lesser-known The Usual Suspects in which is one of the more insightful lines that I've heard in a while: “The greatest trick the devil ever pulled was convincing the world he did not exist.”

Think about it. It is a pretty good trick, isn't it?

I think it's led to our moral relativism. Just like the devil doesn't exist, neither does right or wrong. People say things like: “I decide what's good and bad for me.”

I think it's led to our materialistic worldview. Just like the devil doesn't exist, neither does God nor spirits of any kind. “All that there is, is what I can see, taste, touch, hear, and smell.”

I think it's led to the degradation of our ethics. If the devil doesn't exist, we stop watching out for him. Stealthily, silently, he leads us into worse and worse behavior because our guard is down.

And, taken together, by convincing us that he doesn't exist, Satan has had great success at achieving his ultimate goal: leading us away from trusting in God so that we'll join him in his eternal torment instead of receiving God's gift of everlasting life.

Right now, the church is growing in places like Africa and rural Asia where people believe in and worship spirits. At least in part, this is because missionaries are able to go in and demonstrate the power of God over and above the power of the demons that plague them every day.

But here in America, Christianity, and religion in general, is faltering. Undoubtedly, a big reason for this is that the devil has convinced us that he doesn't exist.

And I think these ideas have even crept into the church. I'll be the first to admit that I don't talk about the devil enough. We talk about pain and suffering, falling away from faith, temptation, and sin. But rarely do we talk about the one who's behind all of these things — our true enemy — the devil.

The Bible says: "Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour" (1 Peter 5:8). It talks about being caught by "the snare of the devil, after being captured by him to do his will" (2 Timothy 2:26). It's the devil who tempts us (1 Thessalonians 3:5). It's the devil who fills our hearts to do wrong (Acts 5:3). He's the bringer of death (Hebrews 2:14). He's the source of evil (John 8:44). It's the devil that keeps people from coming to faith (2 Corinthians 4:4). It's the devil who leads people to hell (Revelation 20:7-10).

Certainly, the Scriptures acknowledge that the devil is the one behind all the evil, but we so often fail to see that. And ultimately, because of this, I think we fight our spiritual battles ineffectively.

For instance: how many lives would have been saved if the Allies had been able to assassinate Adolf Hitler instead of slowly fighting through the forces he commanded? Likewise, I think, to some degree at least, we'd be better off fighting the tempter instead of the temptation, the depressor instead of the depression, and the hater instead of the hate.

In other words, because the devil has, to some degree, convinced us that he doesn't exist, we fight our worldly problems but fail to fight the one commanding those problems to assault us: Satan himself. 2 Corinthians 10:3-4 says, "For though we walk in the flesh, we are not waging war according to the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh but have divine power to destroy strongholds."

Now, I'm not saying that earthly weapons are of no use to fight against our problems. Certainly, support groups assist in overcoming addiction. Undoubtedly, medication helps to handle mental health concerns. And absolutely, self-help books aid in battling temptation. These are still gifts that God gives to us. Even though they didn't kill Adolf Hitler, the Allies still won WWII.

But I'll also say that I believe we'll fight our problems more effectively when we realize that, ultimately, the devil is behind our sufferings and that we should use God's spiritual weapons to fight against him.

In fact, God's word instructs us to do just that: "Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places" (Ephesians 6:11-12). The next few verses describe in detail what the armor of God is: a righteous life, the Gospel, the truth of God, faith, salvation, the Word of God, and prayer.

For the devil does exist. Though he might be trying to convince you otherwise, don't fall into his trap. Instead, recognize that he's the one who is really buffeting you. Then, don't just sit here and take it. God enables us and empowers us to defend ourselves and fight back. So, instead of just picking up a pill, also pick up prayer. Instead of just opening up a self-help book, also open up the Good Book. Instead of just looking for an earthly solution, look up to your salvation.

Don't forget, God has already defeated the devil, and he's on our side! You can't lose.

Early Childhood Center

The 2023-24 school year has ended. We had 12 children from the 4K class graduate on May 22. The children acted out the book "No Sleep for Sheep," sang some of their favorite songs and then received their diplomas. We wish them God's blessings as they enter Kindergarten in the fall.

Child Care will be open throughout the summer. We will be closed Memorial Day, the Fourth of July, a staff retreat July 29 and Labor Day weekend August 30 & Sept. 2. Weather permitting, the children will be spending their days out on the playground for centers, art projects, snacks, large motor and free play. They will come indoors to eat lunch and rest in the building. This altered format gives the children a change of pace and lots of time for fresh air and exercise.

Thank you for saving used ink and toner cartridges as well as old cell phones. You can continue to drop them off in the Giving Center during the summer.

There are still openings available in the afternoon Preschool and morning 4K classes next Fall. If you know someone who might be interested, please give them our contact information – call 920-467-6733 or email us at preschool@stpaulfalls.com.

We're preparing for the eleventh annual Feed My Starving Children (FMSC) MobilePack and couldn't be more excited! Mark your calendar for October 10 – 12 to help pack meals. FMSC has provided life-saving meals to 112 countries around the world since 2009 and depends on organizations like ours to continue that mission.

We'll be raising funds at Ducktona again this year and would love your support.

Sunday, July 7 – Ducktona Pancake Breakfast: Come enjoy a delicious breakfast between 7 – 11am. Could you lend a hand at the event? There are two shifts available: 6 – 9 am or 9 am - 12 pm.

There will be a Congregation Meeting on Tuesday, June 18 at 6:30 pm in the Worship Center. Please see the weekly news two weeks prior to the meeting for the agenda.

A Maycember to Remember

Have you heard of 'Maycember'? It is a trending term that refers to the chaos and stress of December, but during the month of May. It's especially relevant in the education world, where students, parents, teachers, and staff all feel the heat as end-of-school-year activities abound: exams, papers, concerts, awards, senior nights for athletics, banquets, prom, graduations, confirmations, parties... the list goes on. Was May crazy at Lutheran High? Absolutely! But May also provided many opportunities to celebrate the God-given talents of our students, particularly the Class of 2024 graduates. In the fall of 2020, these students began their high school experience in the midst of the COVID pandemic, socially distancing and masking up, making the most of their freshman year. Four years later, they went out with a bang, earning an astounding $1.97 million in scholarships for higher education. Of the 49 graduates, 46 will be attending tech schools, colleges, or universities, with several intending to pursue church work as educators or musicians. Regardless of the next path they have chosen, it is our prayer as a faculty and staff that each graduate feels prepared for lives of Christian leadership. When asked to reflect on their experience at Sheboygan Lutheran High, here is what a few new Crusader graduates had to say:

"Lutheran High has prepared me to stand up for my faith, love and serve my neighbor in all vocations, and be a kind and compassionate Christian leader."

- Peyton Roethel

"LHS has prepared me to really understand how to hone my God-given abilities and best use them in the world that God has laid out for me."

- Ryan Lindsey

"Lutheran High has trained me in many ways to be ready to go out into the world and spread the light of Christ to everyone around me."

- Asa Diener

Rebuilding Together

Thank You

On Friday, April 12th and Saturday, April 13th volunteers from St Paul helped an older couple create a safer environment. The concrete steps leading down from their porch sidewalk to the city sidewalk was breaking apart and sinking. This created slanting steps that were difficult for the couple to navigate. The old concrete steps were removed, and new wooden steps built. A railing was also added. At an earlier date gutters and downspouts were fixed so that water would not run onto their sidewalk and freeze. Thank you to Allen, Jon, Pete, Tom, and Brian who helped with the project. Thank you also to St Paul congregation for your continued support of Rebuilding Together Sheboygan County.

Dick Boenisch
St Paul Coordinator

Thank you

I would like to thank Joan Dulmes for the beautiful job she did on the God Bless America Sign by the Veterans display.

36th Annual Trash 'N' Treasure

Check those basements, attics, garages, and drawers for items in good, clean condition that you no longer need. Sheboygan County's largest rummage sale will be Saturday, September 21, sponsored by St. Paul Friends Club. Proceeds fund Mission Projects!

Drop off information and volunteer sign up begins in August! If you have any questions, please call Lorrie Wilson, aka Trash Queen at 920-467-6880.

Love Inc – Furniture Ministry Help Needed

Do you know that Love INC has received over 60 requests for furniture this year? Currently, we are only able to deliver furniture twice a month for a maximum number of 8 families each month. Our neighbors are now waiting until late August for furniture. Could you be a part of the solution and volunteer to serve on a furniture delivery team? We would like to create 4 teams of 4-6 people who would serve once a month so we could deliver furniture each Saturday and reduce the waiting time for our neighbors. Contact us at loveincsheboygancounty.org if you are willing to serve in this capacity.

Step 5 – We admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.

"Therefore, confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed." James 5:16

Confess and Admit – A big step in our healing process is to examine the areas of our lives that we made mistakes, take ownership of the hurt we have caused other people and admit that to God, ourselves and to someone that we trust.
