ST. GEORGE'S WINDSOR

* Affirmation of Faith

The Apostle's Creed

Rev. Stone

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be;
world without end. Amen.

Proclamation & Response

First Reading

Colossians 1:11-20 (Pew Bible pg 956)

Rev. Stone

May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified us to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. He has delivered us from the dominion of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation; for in him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that in everything he might be pre-eminent. For in him all the fulness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

* Hymn No. 131

We Gather Together

KREMSE

Anthem

Pilgrim Song

American Hymn,
Arr. Ryan Murphy

My brethren, I have found a land that doth abound
with fruit as sweet as honey;
The more I eat, I find,
The more I am inclined
To shout and sing hosanna.
My soul doth long to go where I may fully know
The glory of my Savior;
And as I pass along I'll sing the Christian song,
I'm going to live forever.

Perhaps you think me wild,
or simple as a child;
I am a child of glory;
I am born from above,
my soul is filled with love;
I love to tell the story.
My soul doth long to go where I may fully know
The glory of my Savior;
And as I pass along I'll sing the Christian song,
I'm going to live forever.

My soul now sits and sings
and practices its wings,
and contemplates the hour
When the messenger shall say,
'Come quit this house of clay,
and with bright angels tower.'
My soul doth long to go where I may fully know
The glory of my Savior;
And as I pass along I'll sing the Christian song,
I'm going to live forever.

Second Reading

Psalm 118:1-9, 28-29 (Pew Bible pg 492)

Rev. Varnell

O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his steadfast love endures for ever! Let Israel say, "His steadfast love endures for ever." Let the house of Aaron say, "His steadfast love endures for ever." Let those who fear the Lord say, "His steadfast love endures for ever." Out of my distress I called on the Lord; the Lord answered me and set me free. With the Lord on my side I do not fear. What can man do to me? The Lord is on my side to help me; I shall look in triumph on those who hate me. It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to put confidence in man. It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to put confidence in princes.

Thou art my God, and I will give thanks to thee; thou art my God, I will extol thee. O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures for ever!

This is the word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

———— A Bicentennial Moment ————

In anticipation of Mulberry's upcoming Bicentennial Celebration in 2026, the Leonard Hill Cochran Historical Room presents a moment of Mulberry history:

Excerpts from “125th Anniversary Mulberry Street Methodist Church 1826-1926” booklet written by James Walter Wright Daniel, Professor Emeritus of History, Wesleyan College.

Founded in 1826, Mulberry Street Methodist Church of Macon, Georgia, now a century and a quarter old has a record of which its members are justly proud. The ground on which the church now stands has never been used for other than religious purposes. The original building was of logs, and the present one is the 4th constructed on the original site dating back to 1894. It was remodeled in 1928 when the large educational building was erected. At the meeting of the 1st Quarterly Conference in February 1925, a resolution was approved calling for a building and expansion program as the most fitting way to celebrate Mulberry's Centennial birthday. The time seemed propitious with recovery from World War I rapidly being achieved and prosperity seemed not just around the corner but on main street. Business was booming, stocks were selling fast.

The six-day celebration of the Centennial ended Sunday, April 11, 1926 and on that day $134,000 was subscribed for the building fund. By November of 1926, subscriptions to the fund payable over a period of 5 years reached a total of $150,000, the largest amount ever raised in any one year by the congregation. To be continued.

———— Christ the King Sunday ————

Christ the King Sunday is the concluding Sunday of the liturgical year, and marks the last Sunday before Advent begins. On this Sunday, we remember that the crucified Christ is the same Christ who came as a humble infant in a manger on Christmas.
