CONSIDER CHRIST | OCTOBER 18, 2026

SERMON RECAP

Moses was a faithful servant in God's house, but Jesus is the faithful Son OVER it, better than Moses. Consider Christ and hold firmly to your confidence and hope in Him.

THE LEAD IN

- Who do you consider to be the GOAT (greatest of all time) in sports, music, other fields? What makes them the GOAT?

GETTING INTO THE TEXT

- Read Hebrews 3:1-6. The author of Hebrew is comparing Jesus to Moses, a giant of the Jewish faith. How are they alike? What makes Jesus worthy of greater honor?
- Numbers 12:6-8 is the passage quoted in Hebrews 3:5. What does Numbers say sets Moses apart from every other prophet? Knowing that, what does it say about Christ that He is worthy of even greater honor?

GOING DEEPER

- We have been warned to not drift away. The author of Hebrews was concerned that his readers would drift back to their old ways before Christ. What things tend to pull your thoughts away from Jesus? What helps you fix them back on Him?
- To “consider Christ” is to fix your thoughts on him, your whole mind. What would continually considering Christ look like for you in ordinary life this week?

PRAYER

- Pray for each other, that you would each learn ways to practically consider Christ daily so that you do not drift back into the old things that distracted you.
