Rivers of Living Water

John 7:37-52

The opposition toward Jesus continues to grow as He takes center stage at the Feast of Booths. There, Jesus proclaims that not only is He the wellspring of life, but He also wants us to have living water pulsing through us. The gift that Jesus offers us (the Holy Spirit) is something so exquisitely beautiful and excellent because He brings replenishment, restoration, and rejuvenation. The spiritually thirsty find their satisfaction and delight in Christ and the Spirit He gives.

“By this word thirst He means a desire for grace... all who feel their poverty are invited to come to Him.”

~ John Calvin

The condition: You must be thirsty.

“The Spirit is the grand gift which Jesus came into the world to bestow.”

~ J. C. Ryle

The solution: You must come and drink.

“All the supplies of grace... are from the Holy Spirit.”

~ John Owen

The emanation: You will have rivers of living water in you.
