Meal Train Ministry: We are compiling a list of people interested in helping take meals to people of Heritage, whether you've met or not, who need extra support after surgery, a death in the family, a serious illness or a new baby in the home. This would not obligate you each time—it gives you the opportunity to help. To join the email list or ask questions about this ministry, contact Meredith Brewer, jimandmeredith.brewer@gmail.com.

Get more information about Wed PM groups, small groups, or ABF on the ministries page on our website or at the Welcome Desk.

As a family of forgiven people we are honored that you have joined with us today as we seek to develop people who delight in God and declare His glory—from our neighborhoods to the nations. Our prayer is that you will connect with God through Christ this morning and that this would be the beginning of a deep connection with other believers as well. Please take a moment to fill out the Communication Card located under the pew in front of you and place it in an offering pedestal in the back of the Worship Center.

*I Will Wait For You
(Psalm 130)*

"Submission means that she sees herself as a part a part of her husband's team. She is not her husband's opponent fighting at cross purposes or trying to outdo him. She is not merely an individual going her separate way. She is her husband's teammate striving for the same goal. She has ideas, opinions, desires, requests, and insights, and she lovingly makes them known. But she knows that in any good team someone has to make the final decision and plans. She knows that the team members must support the team leader, his plans and decisions, or no progress will be made, and confusion and frustration will result."

Wayne Mack

"When a husband and wife walk in the Spirit and fulfill their core roles, they complement one another, bring unity to their marriage, joy to their hearts, a reversal of the fall and proof they are being recreated in Christ."

Randy Smith

"To submit to anyone less than Christ is difficult in a marriage. Yet it is Christ who commands women to be submissive to their sinful, fallible husbands. In this sense Christ is the silent partner in the marriage. It is hard for a wife to submit when she disagrees with her husband. But when she knows her submission is an act of obedience to Christ and honors Christ, it is much less difficult."

R. C. Sproul

"Marriage is a call to die to self. Christian marriage vows are the inception of a lifelong practice of death, of giving over not only all you have, but all you are. Is this a grim call? Not at all! It is no more grim than dying to self and following Christ. In fact, those who lovingly die for their spouses are those who know the most joy, have the most fulfilling marriages, and experience the most love."

Preservation of Biblical Identities &
Roles of Men and Women, Part 3
I Timothy 2:8-15

Big Truth of this Series: God has commissioned the people of God, the church, to be grounded in sound doctrine and to live in a godly manner according to His truth.

Big Truth of Today's Message: A healthy church is made up of healthy homes in which women understand and carry out their God-ordained roles of being godly women and biblically strong helpers.
