As a family of forgiven people, we are honored that you have joined with us today as we seek to develop people who delight in God and declare His glory—from our neighborhoods to the nations. Our prayer is that you will connect with God through Christ this morning and that this would be the beginning of a deep connection with other believers as well. Please take a moment to fill out the Communication Card located in the chair pocket near you and place it in an offering pedestal in the back of the Worship Center.

Broken and Spilled Out

John 12:1-11

Everyone is a worshiper, either of the one true God or the smorgasbord of God-replacements. Something or someone is ruling our hearts, as in this passage – everyone is a worshiper.

Sermon Notes:

"Human beings by their very nature are worshipers. Worship is not something we do; it defines who we are. You cannot divide human beings into those who worship and those who don't. Everybody worships; it's just a matter of what, or whom, we serve."

~ Paul David Tripp

"We measure worship by how we feel as we worship. True worship is measured by what God thinks about our worship."

~ Kevin DeYoung

"Broken and spilled out, just for love of you, Jesus, my most precious treasure, lavished on thee. Broken and spilled out, and poured at your feet, in sweet abandon, let me be spilled out, and used up for Thee."

~ Gloria Gaither
