Our prayer is that you will connect with God through Christ this morning and that this would be the beginning of a deep connection with other believers as well. Please take a moment to fill out the Communication Card located in the chair pocket near you and place it in an offering pedestal in the back of the Worship Center.

Behold, Your King Is Coming

John 12:12-19

Jesus Christ came as the long-awaited King whom God had promised to His people. However, this long-awaited King would soon become their rejected King. The crowds celebrated Him for what they expected Him to do, but Jesus had a far greater purpose in mind. He was focused on the mission given to Him by the Father—to give His life for the salvation of His people.

1. The King is here.

2. The King is exalted.

3. The King is meek and lowly.

"The crowd acclaims Jesus as king, but understands kingship in categories Jesus rejects."

~ D. A. Carson

"The donkey was not normally used by a warlike person. It was the animal of a man of peace, a priest, a merchant or the like. It might also be used by a person of importance but in connection with peaceable purposes. A conqueror would ride into the city on a war horse, or perhaps march in on foot at the head of his troops. The donkey speaks of peace."

~ F. F. Bruce
