2026 Annual Meeting Update: Last Sunday we gathered as a church family to remember God’s work among us and to hear updates from our elders on ministry, leadership, survey insights, and the proposed Budget overview from the Finance team. We are grateful for the unity expressed through an overwhelming 99+% affirmation of the 2026–27 Budget and of our lay-elders. We praise God for His steady guidance and the faithfulness of our people.

Discipleship

As a family of forgiven people, we are honored that you have joined with us today as we seek to develop people who delight in God and declare His glory—from our neighborhoods to the nations. Our prayer is that you will connect with God through Christ this morning and that this would be the beginning of a deep connection with other believers as well. Please take a moment to fill out the Communication Card located in the chair pocket near you and place it in an offering pedestal in the back of the Worship Center.

Jesus' Model for Making Disciples

Gospel of Mark

When God calls us to be disciples, He also calls us to extend His love by discipling others.

Sermon Notes:

A good student, as one rabbi said, is covered in the dust of his rabbi.

~ Unknown

Awe-amnesia is the principal producer of doubt in God. The more you lose sight of the centrality of God's awesome presence and grandeur, the more you will focus on yourself. The more you focus on self, the more you will focus on your wants, needs, dreams, desires, hopes, goals, expectations and feelings. The more you focus on these things, the more you will define the love of God by His willingness to deliver them. And as God continues to deliver what He's promised but does not give you what you want, you will begin to doubt His goodness and love. This cycle devastates people's spiritual lives because when you doubt God's love, you cease trusting Him and thus quit going to Him for help.

~ Paul David Tripp

God's love for us is meant to spark a chain reaction in which we love others so they in turn love God more and extend that love to others. We love them best through discipling, through helping them follow Christ.
