The Light of Life

John 8:12-30

Jesus is the light of the world and the light of life. He came to illumine the darkness and to give life.

Sermon Notes:

"One of the main themes of John's gospel is that the coming of Jesus is the light that gives life to the world. The light overcomes the darkness (a metaphor for sin, ignorance, and the deeds of Satan). When Jesus spoke of Himself as "the light of the world," He declared that He was the pillar of fire who led Israel through the wilderness. He was that one in whom Israel was victorious. When Jesus spoke of Himself as the light, He was identifying Himself as that one in whom the glory of God is revealed and who is both the Word of God incarnate and the embodiment of the righteousness of God as revealed in the Law. The very presence of Jesus in the age to come means that light has finally and forever overcome all darkness."
