John 9

John 9 is a story of two kinds of blindness. The blind beggar receives both physical and spiritual sight. Meanwhile, the Pharisees, growing more confident in their own understanding, sink deeper into spiritual darkness.

Sermon Notes:

Our confidence rests not in His explanation but in His character, not in what He has done but in who He is – the One who knows “the end from the beginning and from ancient times things not yet done, saying, ‘My counsel shall stand, and I will accomplish all My purpose’ (Isaiah 46:10).”

~ Tim Challies, following the death of his son

There are none so blind as those who will not see.
