November Memory Verse: "Though the fig tree should not blossom, nor fruit be on the vines, the produce of the olive fail and the fields yield no food, the flock be cut off from the fold and there be no herd in the stalls, yet I will rejoice in the Lord; I will take joy in the God of my salvation." Habakkuk 3:17-18

"Neighborhoods to the Nations" Giving Emphasis: During the month of November, please prayerfully consider how you might minister to those both near and far by giving to various ministries, missionaries, and families. We invite you to consider the following two opportunities.

NEIGHBORHOODS: On Sunday, Nov. 22, from noon to 4:00pm, help support HopeHouse OKC by attending Home for the Holidays, a festive holiday market at White Fields (7127 N. County Line Rd.) in Piedmont. Enjoy local vendors, fresh food, live music, crafts, games, plus Christmas activities for the whole family. Your participation helps support the ministry of HopeHouse as they serve children and families in our area.

NATIONS: Each year, with your generosity, Harvest Evangelistic Association assembles 20,000 Kingdom Kids Christmas backpacks filled with school supplies, toys, candy, and a beautiful gospel booklet. More than 400 native pastors are trained and equipped to use the backpacks as tools to take the Gospel to remote villages near Chiapas, Mexico. You can learn more about this ministry and help fill backpacks for $10 each by visiting harvestevangelistic.org/kingdom-kids/ or by using the provided insert.

Men's Third Thursday: Nov. 19 - We will meet at Rudy's on Memorial at 11:30am for food, fellowship, and a brief devotional.

Adult volunteers are needed to help decorate the church on Sunday, Nov. 22 at noon. Lunch will be provided. Email shawn@heritageokc.org to sign up.

Life Adult Christmas Luncheon (60+): Sunday, Dec. 6, at noon in the Chapel/Café. We'll have brisket, sides, and dessert, and hear a brief word from Jeff Plangman. Sign up by Nov. 29 at the Welcome Desk. $10/person.

Visit the Events page at heritageokc.org/events to see our holiday schedule and for more details about upcoming events.

As a family of forgiven people, we are honored that you have joined with us today as we seek to develop people who delight in God and declare His glory—from our neighborhoods to the nations. Our prayer is that you will connect with God through Christ this morning and that this would be the beginning of a deep connection with other believers as well. Please take a moment to fill out the Communication Card located in the chair pocket near you and place it in an offering pedestal in the back of the Worship Center.

How Jesus Prays For Us (Pt. 2)

John 17:20-26

Jesus continues His high priestly prayer on behalf of His people. In these final moments of prayer, He petitions the Father for the unity of all who will believe in Him through the apostles' word. Yet this unity is not merely for the church's own benefit; it serves a greater purpose: the evangelization of the world, that the world may believe the Father sent the Son. Finally, Jesus' prayer looks toward the eschatological hope of His people. He longs for the day when they will be with Him to behold His glory and experience the fullness of the love shared between the Father and the Son.
