As a family of forgiven people, we are honored that you have joined with us today as we seek to develop people who delight in God and declare His glory—from our neighborhoods to the nations. Our prayer is that you will connect with God through Christ this morning and that this would be the beginning of a deep connection with other believers as well. Please take a moment to fill out the Communication Card located in the chair pocket near you and place it in an offering pedestal in the back of the Worship Center.

Grace Greater than Our Sin

Benediction

Jonathan Dirrim

"Ah, be assured sin is a mysterious thing. Beware lest you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. Sin is so deceitful that it leads the sinner to seek the means of deceiving himself."

~ Hugh Martin

"Why should you fear to be stripped of that which you have resigned already to Christ? It is the first lesson you learn, if a Christian, to deny thyself, take up thy cross, and follow thy Master so that the enemy comes too late; thou hast no life to lose because thou hast given it already to Christ."

~ William Gurnall

"Let truth have full scope without check or restraint, and let Satan and his instruments do their worst; they shall not prevail."

~ Richard Sibbes

"Meekness without zeal is nothing else but lukewarmness and cowardice. Zeal without meekness degenerates into sinful passion. We should be meek in our own cause but zealous in the cause of God."

~ Samuel Mather

How Will You Answer?

John 18:12-27

As Jesus purposefully set His gaze on the cross, those around Him flailed in their attempts to respond. The reality of Jesus' identity and His mission unsettled the religious authorities of the day as well as His followers. Their exposing reactions to the truth cause us to consider our own responses to the Savior today. Jesus' exacting words in the face of falsehood additionally call us to evaluate our fidelity to God's truth. Weighing the various replies in today's text, how will you answer?

1. Jesus' Enemies Suppressed the Truth (vv. 12-14)

2. Peter Denied the Truth (vv.15-18)

3. Jesus Invoked the Truth (vv.19-24)

4. Peter Denied the Truth Again (vv. 25-27)
