THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

As a family of forgiven people, we are honored that you have joined with us today as we seek to develop people who delight in God and declare His glory—from our neighborhoods to the nations. Our prayer is that you will connect with God through Christ this morning and that this would be the beginning of a deep connection with other believers as well. Please take a moment to fill out the Communication Card located in the chair pocket near you and place it in an offering pedestal in the back of the Worship Center.

From Servants to Friends

John 15:12-17

Jesus calls His disciples His friends because He has loved them sacrificially, revealed the Father to them, and graciously chosen them to bear fruit. And not only were His disciples His friends; as His followers, we are, too. Therefore, we are commanded to love one another with that same self-giving love.

Questions to Consider

How does Jesus define friendship in this passage?

What is the difference between being Jesus' friends and being his servants?

How is Jesus' friendship with us different from our friendships with one another?

How should Jesus' friendship with us shape the way we love one another?

1. Friends Who Are Loved (vv. 12-13)

2. Friends Who Are Let In (v. 15)

3. Friends Who Are Chosen (v. 16a)

4. Friends Who are Commissioned (v. 16b-17)
