THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

As a family of forgiven people, we are honored that you have joined with us today as we seek to develop people who delight in God and declare His glory—from our neighborhoods to the nations. Our prayer is that you will connect with God through Christ this morning and that this would be the beginning of a deep connection with other believers as well. Please take a moment to fill out the Communication Card located in the chair pocket near you and place it in an offering pedestal in the back of the Worship Center.

The Best Is Yet to Come

John 16:4b-15

Jesus prepares His disciples for His departure by giving them a preview of the blessings and benefits of the Holy Spirit's work and by encouraging them that the future will be even greater than the past.

1. Shocked and bewildered
2. I'm leaving, and that's a good thing
3. The Holy Spirit – who He is and what He will do
4. God's perfect plan revealed

Application:

"The Spirit does not glorify Himself; He glorifies the Son... This is, to me, one of the most amazing and remarkable things about the biblical doctrine of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit seems to hide Himself and to conceal Himself. He is always, as it were, putting the focus on the Son, and that is why I believe, and I believe profoundly, that the best test of all as to whether we have received the Spirit is to ask ourselves, what do we think of, and what do we know about, the Son. Is the Son real to us? That is the work of the Spirit. He is glorified indirectly; He is always pointing us to the Son."
