*My Soul Will Wait
(Psalm 62)*

“The fact is that a sound and lively truth-basis has been ejected from the premises of modern evangelicalism. Evangelicalism has been dispossessed of truth to such an extent that it is becoming frightening. In its place experience and mysticism are house-sitting the church or, if not these, then church growth pragmatism or an unhealthy preoccupation with the psychological. But the necessary doctrines of the holiness of God and His just wrath, justification by faith alone, the transforming nature of regeneration, the sovereignty of God over all of creation and in salvation itself, the nature and extent of grace in justification and in sanctification – doctrines upon which the earlier revivals thrived – have been considered unimportant and useful for wizened old theologs holed up in ivory towers who do not relate to the church’s future.”
~Jim Eliff

“The early Christians condemned false doctrine in a way that sounds almost unchristian today.”
~Vance Havner

“The only true church is truly apostolic. It is built on the foundation laid by the Apostles and holds the doctrines which they preached. The two grand objects at which its members aim are apostolic faith and apostolic practice; and they consider the man who talks of following the Apostles without possessing these two things to be no better than sounding brass and tinkling cymbal.”
~J. C. Ryle

“To the Christian, doctrine is unavoidable. Ours is never a choice between doctrine and no doctrine, but between sound doctrine and false doctrine. This is nowhere more urgent than when we are talking about the Christ, who is the object of our faith.”
~R. C. Sproul

The Foundation of All We Do

Teach What Accords with Sound Doctrine

Titus 2:1, 15

Big Truth of this Series: With the saints through the ages, we share a common faith in gospel doctrine that inspires gospel duty that adorns gospel doctrine.

Big Truth of Today’s Message: True discipleship must begin, continue, and end with the teaching of all that accords with the sound doctrine found in the Scriptures.

“But as for you, teach what accords with sound doctrine...” (2:1)

“Declare these things; exhort and rebuke with all authority...” (2:15a)

“Let no one disregard you.” (2:15b)
