

KINGDOM COME

⁸ “Or what woman, having ten silver coins, if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and seek diligently until she finds it?

⁹ And when she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.’

¹⁰ Just so, I tell you, there is joy before the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

Luke 15:8-10

V.8 - The Coin Had Value

“She has ten silver coins...”

- She has ten coins, & one is missing
 - This coin mattered to her
- 1 Greek Drachma/ Roman Denarius = Day Wage
- Coins might've been the woman's marriage dowry: personal & relational significance
 - Coins were a public display of marital status
 - Coins were a security blanket for the marriage

“Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church & gave Himself up for her, that He might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the Word, so that He might present the church to Himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy & without blemish.”

– Ephesians 5:25-27

“Let us rejoice & exult & give Him the glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, & His Bride has made herself ready; it was granted her to clothe herself with fine linen, bright & pure” for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints.”

– Revelation 19:7-8

V. 9 - The Coin Was Lost -

“If she loses one coin...”

- She doesn't simply accept that she has nine.
 - She lights a lamp
 - She sweeps the house
 - She searches carefully until she finds it
- The coin is lost, but it is not forgotten.

Just as a woman would desperately turn over a dark, dirt-floored house with a lamp to find her missing wedding token, God actively & intimately searches for lost individuals.

“I am the light of the world. Whoever follows Me will not walk in darkness but will have the Light of Life.” – John 8:12

For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, hated by others and hating one another. But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit.” – Titus 3:3-5

“For the Son of Man came to seek & to save the lost.” – Luke 19:10

V.9 The Coin Was Found –

“Until she finds it.”

- The search has a purpose: To find what is lost
 - She doesn't stop halfway through
 - She doesn't say, “Nine is good enough...”

“For you formed my inward parts; you knitted me together in my mother's womb. I praise you, for I am fearfully & wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well.” - Psalm 139:13-14

His bride

V. 9&10 The Coin Was Worth Celebrating -

“Rejoice w/ me; I have found the coin that I had lost.”

- Finding the lost coin leads to rejoicing
- Heaven rejoices when one lost person comes home

Happiness: Depends on what is happening around you

Biblical Rejoicing: A steadfast state of gladness rooted in spiritual Truths & Who God is

- What causes heaven to rejoice should cause God's people to rejoice.
- If the lost matter to the King, the lost should matter to us.

“As the Father has loved Me, so have I loved you. Now remain in My love. If you keep My commands, you will remain in My Love, just as I have kept My Father’s commands & remain in His love. I have told you this so that My JOY may be in you & that your joy may be complete. My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one’s life for one’s friends. You are My friends if you do what I command.” - John 15:9-14

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, & sin which clings so closely, & let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder & perfecter of our faith, who for the JOY that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, & is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.” - Hebrews 12:1-2

- ✓ LOOK to Jesus
- ✓ LIVE in His Love
- ✓ LOVE with Joy

Kingdom Come disciples don't just endure the journey - they find joy in following the King.
