Joseph: A Life Of Many Colors

THE LIFE OF JOSEPH

Chapters 40 & 41

Recap of Genesis 37 & 39

Joseph: Son of Jacob & Rachel. Jacob's favorite of 11 sons. Jacob gave him a coat of many colors.

Joseph shared his dreams of his brothers bowing down to him.

His brothers tried to kill him but threw him in a pit instead.

His brothers then sold him to merchants headed for Egypt.

They led Jacob to believe that he was killed by a wild animal.

In Egypt Joseph is a slave of Pharoah's official Potiphar.

Potiphar's wife tries to seduce him, but he resists, and resists.

She then lies to Potiphar and claims he did, when he did not.

Potiphar puts Joseph in jail for two years.

“True joy is a by-product of living in God’s presence. Therefore, you can experience God’s true joy and hope in palaces, prisons, or anywhere else.”

¹⁵ Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I had a dream, and no one can interpret it. But I have heard it said of you that when you hear a dream you can interpret it.” ¹⁶ “I cannot do it,” Joseph replied to Pharaoh, “but God will give Pharaoh the answer he desires...”
....²⁵ Then Joseph said to Pharaoh... ²⁹ Seven years of great abundance are coming throughout the land of Egypt, ³⁰ but seven years of famine will follow them. Then all the abundance in Egypt will be forgotten, and the famine will ravage the land. ³¹ The abundance in the land will not be remembered, because the famine that follows it will be so severe.

Genesis 41: 15-16, 25, 29-31

Joseph allowed God's desires to rule him, not his own!

“I have come to Him as the best friend I have ever found, and I can trust Him in that relationship. I have believed He is my Savior; I have believed He is my God; I have believed that His atonement on the cross is for me, and I have come to Him, submitted myself to Him, and surrendered everything to Him.”

- Dwight L. Moody
