

I Got This

CASE STUDY 5

Sara considers herself rather resourceful and efficient when it comes to getting work done. She knows how to tackle a problem. She evaluates her resources, considers the possible solutions, decides which one is best, and carries out the plan to solve the problem. Her problem-solving efforts at her job have earned her several promotions.

Sara has recently taken over the languishing women's ministry at her church. She is attacking this problem like she does the ones at her job. She knows that with her skills, she can turn around the women's ministry to see it flourish again.

When one of the women in the church asked Sara how she could pray for her, Sara didn't know what to say. She hadn't really thought about praying about the women's ministry, though she supposes it could help.

1. How would you describe Sara's view of herself?
2. How would you describe Sara's view of Christ's intercessory ministry in Heaven?
3. Read Hebrews 4:16. How might Sara benefit from the grace of God?
4. How important has approaching the throne of grace been to you?
5. Pray about your prayer life. Ask God to help you see the importance of Christ's intercessory ministry in Heaven.
