Title: God in 5G

Sermon by Pastor Bob Johnson / Oct 17, 2021

Text: Psalm 145

Introduction:

Psalm 145 Background

- The last Psalm attributed to David and most likely written toward the end of David's life
- One of the nine Psalms that uses a Hebrew form of poetry called an acrostic because each verse begins with a letter in the Hebrew alphabet.
- This is the only Psalm that starts with a Praise of David.
- Some have called this particular Psalm, David's swan song.
- It seems fitting that David would systematically and theologically, write a Psalms of Praise!

I. David Declares His Praise

- He declares his resolve to give praise (Psalm 145:1)
- He declares his resilience to give praise (Psalm 145:2)

II. David Expresses His Praise

He expresses praise for God's GREATNESS (Psalm 145:3-6)

- God's greatness is unsearchable
- God's greatness is unparallel
- God's greatness is unfathomable
- God's greatness is unbelievable

He expresses praise for God's GOODNESS Psalm 145:7, Psalm 145:9-10)

- God's goodness overflows the heart.
- God's goodness overshadows His creation.
- God's goodness overwhelms the saints.

He expresses praise for God's GRACIOUSNESS (Psalm 145:8)

- a. God's graciousness is kind
- b. God's graciousness is patient

He expresses praise for God's GLORY (Psalm 145:11-13)

- a. God's glorious authority
- b. God's glorious sovereignty
- c. God's glorious eternality

He expresses praise for God's GENEROSITY (Psalm 145:14-20)

- a. God supports
- b. God supplies
- c. God satisfies

III. David Concludes His Praise (Psalm 145:21)
