

God Would Not Want Me

CASE STUDY 8

Corey made his college decision. He was going to the University of Nebraska. He considered going to Bible college but decided against it. He didn't think God wanted him in His service. Corey had treated his parents so poorly while he was in high school. There was no way God would ever use him.

Now his friend Todd was Bible college worthy. He always did what his parents told him to do. Todd didn't waste his high school years with a terrible, rebellious attitude.

1. What do you think of Corey's decision? Is God done with Corey? Explain.
2. Have you ever felt God didn't want to use you in His service? Explain.
3. Read Exodus 34:6–9. Which attributes of God should have given Corey hope as he contemplated his future?
4. Which of God's attributes give you confidence as you look to the future?
