

None of These Things Move Me

CASE STUDY 11

“The thought of going to work with those snot-ridden kids tonight makes me want to gag!” Jen complained as she tried to throw something together for dinner. “All their screaming and laughing gives me a headache!” Jen’s husband Bill had the same sentiments. That was why he always made sure he had something else to do on Wednesday nights.

1. Evaluate the approach Jen’s and Bill’s approaches to ministry.
2. Summarize Paul’s approach to ministry in Acts 20:24.
3. What difficulties do you face in serving the Lord? Can you say with Paul, “None of these things move me, . . . so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus” (Acts 20:24)?
4. What do you need to change to become ministry minded? Or, what change of focus might you need as you carry out your ministry?
