

Sermon Study Guide

Titus 3:4-15

1. How would your life change if you suddenly had an extra 2 million dollars? (It is tax-exempt).
2. Share a time when your knowledge of God's redeeming power in your life changed your actions. (Alternatively, share a time you failed to change your actions and the truth of God's word convicted you.)
3. What are foolish controversies that Christians should avoid today?
4. If you find yourself and a friend in a divisive conversation, how can you steer toward the gospel and toward unity?
5. As we devote ourselves to good words, we should help those in urgent need. Share any current ways you serve or volunteer.
6. Name the gifts that each person in life group has. List them out.
7. Pray for God to give wisdom and direction on how He might use the gifts of people in your life group to meet needs in our city.
8. How can your life group regularly check in on how God may lead you to help those in urgent need?
