Your Walk
HEROES OF THE FAITH

1. Walk by Faith.

Hebrews 11:1 (NLT)

11 Faith shows the reality of what we hope for; it is the evidence of things we cannot see.

Faith believes before it sees.

2 Corinthians 5:7 (NLT)

7 For we live by believing and not by seeing.

Faith trusts God's character when we don't understand His plan.

Proverbs 3:5 (NLT)

5 Trust in the Lord with all your heart;
do not depend on your own understanding.

Faith requires action, not just agreement.

Fact Check: Am I making decisions based on what I can see or based on what I believe about God?

If your faith never requires you to trust God beyond what you can see, you may be walking by sight instead of walking by faith.

2. Walk in Obedience.

Hebrews 11:2,5-6 (NLT)

2 Through their faith, the people in days of old earned a good reputation.

5 It was by faith that Enoch was taken up to heaven without dying—"he disappeared, because God took him." For before he was taken up, he was known as a person who pleased God.

6 And it is impossible to please God without faith. Anyone who wants to come to him must believe that God exists and that he rewards those who sincerely seek him.

Obedience is the evidence of genuine faith.

Obedience doesn't always make sense.

Delayed obedience can become disobedience.

Fact Check: Is there something God has already told me to do that I am refusing to do?

You don't prove your faith by how much Scripture you know; you prove your faith by how much Scripture you obey.

3. Walk Consistently.

Genesis 5:21-22 (NLT)

21 When Enoch was 65 years old, he became the father of Methuselah. 22 After the birth of Methuselah, Enoch lived in close fellowship with God for another 300 years, and he had other sons and daughters.

Enoch didn't just have a moment with God; he built a lifetime of walking with God.

Your walk with God is a daily journey, not a Sunday event.

Consider the difference between visiting someone and walking with someone.
Visiting is occasional. Walking is relational.

Don't despise the small things.

Zechariah 4:10a (NLT)

10 Do not despise these small beginnings…

What we call small, God calls faithful.

We tend to gravitate towards intensity, but God calls us to consistency.

A faithful walk is not measured by how intensely you pursue God in one moment, but by how consistently you pursue Him throughout your life.

Consistency creates a testimony.

Fact Check: If someone followed me around for 30 days, would they recognize that I have a genuine relationship with God?

Walk by faith. Walk in obedience. Walk consistently.

Does the way I'm walking prove what I say I believe?

Three questions to evaluate your walk with God:

1. Am I walking by faith? Am I trusting God even when I cannot see what He is doing?

2. Am I walking in obedience? Am I doing what God has asked me to do, even when it is difficult?

3. Am I walking consistently? Am I pursuing God daily, or only when it is convenient?
