#8066—Giants Must Fall (Christianity & Contemporary Issues)

Rosalyn Scruggs is a woman guided by her faith, born, raised, and educated in Little Rock, Arkansas. Her spiritual journey has been shaped by her commitment to worship at St. John Missionary Baptist Church, where the Senior Pastor is C. Dennis Edwards I.

Rosalyn is a devoted and active member of St. John Missionary Baptist Church. She participates in several ministries and groups, including the Fruit of the Spirit Sunday School Class, Bible Study (PRESS), Women's Missionary Union, Autumn Age Servant Leader, and the Allie Ridgle and Myrtle Gillard Christian Leadership Institute. Through her involvement, she demonstrates a steadfast commitment to her faith and community.

Rosalyn's commitment to her faith is reflected in her daily life. She strives to be an example for others, offering encouragement and guidance through her teaching. As a long-time teacher, Rosalyn aims to inspire transformation by helping others apply scripture to their lives. Her dedication led her to enroll in the Certificate of Progress Program of the Sunday School Publishing Board, where she earned her Diploma in December 2019.

Rosalyn is happily married to George Scruggs. Together, they have two adult daughters, a son-in-law, and one grandson, cherishing their close-knit family.

#2015--Foundation of Christian Ethics

Dr. Rena McKinney has been an instructor for the Sunday School Publishing Board since 2011. With the assistance of Dr. Katherine Bennett, Dr. McKinney enrolled in the COPP program in 2009 and completed and received her Christian Education diploma in 2013. Since the first class taught, she has been up to speed in teaching and is certified to teach 9 courses. Dr. McKinney states that it has been a joy also since that first class. Enjoyment for teaching God's word comes easy when you know and have that relationship with the Lord, you don't mind telling others just how wonderful God really is.

#8035--The African American Church and Social Justice

Guided by Matthew 5:16, Associate Minister and Dean Laura Landrum is committed to shining the light of Christ through faithful service in both church and community. A native of Rayville, Louisiana, she is the devoted wife of Frank Landrum and an active servant-leader at First Baptist Church of North Little Rock under Reverend William L. Robinson.

For more than thirty-five years, Minister Landrum has dedicated herself to Christian education, spiritual growth, and the unifying power of Scripture. She is a graduate of Bible Study Fellowship International, a leader within the Noah's of Ark Emmaus Community, a Union District COP graduate, and among the first graduates of the St. Luke School of Ministry. Her ministry is deeply rooted in 2 Timothy 3:16 and the transformative authority of God's Word.

As Dean of Christian Education at First Baptist Church, she co-led the 2018 Christian Leadership School, awarding over three hundred certificates across all ages. She also serves actively within the Union District Baptist Association and has been honored by the National Baptist Convention USA for her leadership as Dean of Records.

Minister Landrum remains steadfast in her belief that spiritual growth requires listening, learning, and living by Scripture. Her life and ministry continue to reflect her focus: "Fulfilling Our Calling Unto Salvation through Jesus Christ."
