We are a MULTI DENOMINATIONAL
CONGREGATION

The people of Big Canoe Chapel embrace one another without regard to differences in denominational background or bias. Setting aside those differences, as professed followers of Jesus, we focus on the many, many things that unite us. Worshipping with one another and caring for one another, we respectfully choose to serve alongside each other.

Through our personal relationship with Christ, study of the Word, and led by the Holy Spirit, each of us will seek to represent the Body of Christ and help others grow in grace. We will intentionally extend the love and reconciliation of Christ to all.

*CALL TO WORSHIP

L: May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C: Come, let us bow down in worship, let us kneel before the Lord, our maker; for He is our God, and we are the people of His pasture, the flock under His care.

L: O gracious and holy God, give us diligence to seek you, wisdom to perceive you, and patience to wait for you.

C: Grant us, O God, a mind to meditate on you, eyes to behold you, ears to listen to your Word, a heart to love you, and lives that proclaim your name. May Jesus Christ be praised! Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart.

We have failed to be an obedient church.

We have not done your will, we have broken your law.

We have rebelled against your love, we have not loved our neighbors, And we have not heard the cry of the needy. Forgive us, we pray.

Free us for joyful obedience, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

“Voluntary in G, Op. 6, No. 9”

John Stanley

* Please stand, if able

MUSIC NOTES:

John Stanley was a blind organist, and the earliest recipient of a B. Mus. from Oxford (age of 15). His compositional style is similar to that of Handel, the preeminent composer in London. This voluntary has the regal introductory style associated with Handel, followed by a fugue for full organ.
