- What song or artist is currently the soundtrack of your day?

- What insight, principle, or observation from this weekend's message did you find to be most helpful, eye-opening, or troubling? Explain.

- What is one thing you would do differently this week as a result of this message?

Core: Read 2 Corinthians 10:1-18

1. How do you feel about Paul's description of himself as "humble when face to face with you, but bold toward you when I am away!"?

2. What does Paul mean by saying he "walks in the flesh?"

3. Describe the kind of battle that we are waging as followers of Jesus. With whom or what are at war? Think about Paul's language; "flesh, divine power, destroy strongholds, take every thought captive." How does this language frame your impression of spiritual warfare?

4. How can we take captive every thought?

5. How does the first century opinion of Paul's letters described in verse 10 compare to the opinion of scripture (including Paul's letters) today?

6. What are the dangers of comparing ourselves with others?

7. According to verses 15-16 what are some goals of discipleship? How can we see those goals being achieved today?

8. What does it look like to boast in the Lord?

9. How can you know if the Lord commends you?
