Core: Read 2 Corinthians 11:1-15

1. What do you think Paul means when he asks the Corinthians to "bear" with him in foolishness? Have you ever been in that position? How can we act a little foolishly for Jesus?

2. Why was Pal so concerned that the Corinthians would be deceived? How are believers being deceived in our world today?

3. What is the danger of putting up with proclaiming a different Jesus, recieving a different spirit or teaching a different gospel?

4. What vibe do you get from Paul in verses 7-11?

5. How does Paul feel about the believers in Corinth?

6. Paul received his support from other churches, so that he could minister to the church in Corinth. What does this arrangement remind you of today? What do you know about the missionaries that Wallula supports? Why is it important for Wallula to maintain a vibrant, growing missions ministry?

7. How does Paul describe the false teachers in vs 13? To whom does he compare these teachers in vs 14?

8. Do you think people are still disguising themselves as servants of righteousness even though they are servants of Satan? What does this look like today? How can we be on guard against these false teachers today?

9. What does Paul mean that “their end will correspond to their deeds?” What does this principle mean to us?
