- Do you remember your very first Bible?
- What insight, principle, or observation from this weekend's message did you find to be most helpful, eye-opening, or troubling? Explain.
- What is one thing you would do differently this week as a result of this message?

Core: Read 2 Timothy 3:14-17

1. If someone asked you what you believe about the Bible, what would you tell them?
2. How is Timothy's relationship to Scripture described in verses 14-15? Why do you think Paul reminds Timothy of his childhood? What do these verses teach us about our own families and God's Word?
3. How did Timothy's learning from God's word depend on other people? What role does community play in your relationship to Scripture?
4. According to verse 15 what is the value of Scripture?

5. What do you think it means that “all Scripture is breathed out by God”?
6. Does it change your opinion of Scripture or approach to study Scripture to be reminded of the origin of the Bible?
7. How much time do you spend with God’s word on a daily/weekly basis? Is there a disconnect between what you believe about the scriptures and what you actually do with the scriptures?
8. Paul lists four ways Scripture is profitable: teaching, rebuking, correcting, and training in righteousness. Which of these four areas is God actively using in your life right now?
9. What does it look like for a person of God to be complete?
10. How is God’s word making you ready for good works today?
