

Past the Parade to a Passion of Participating

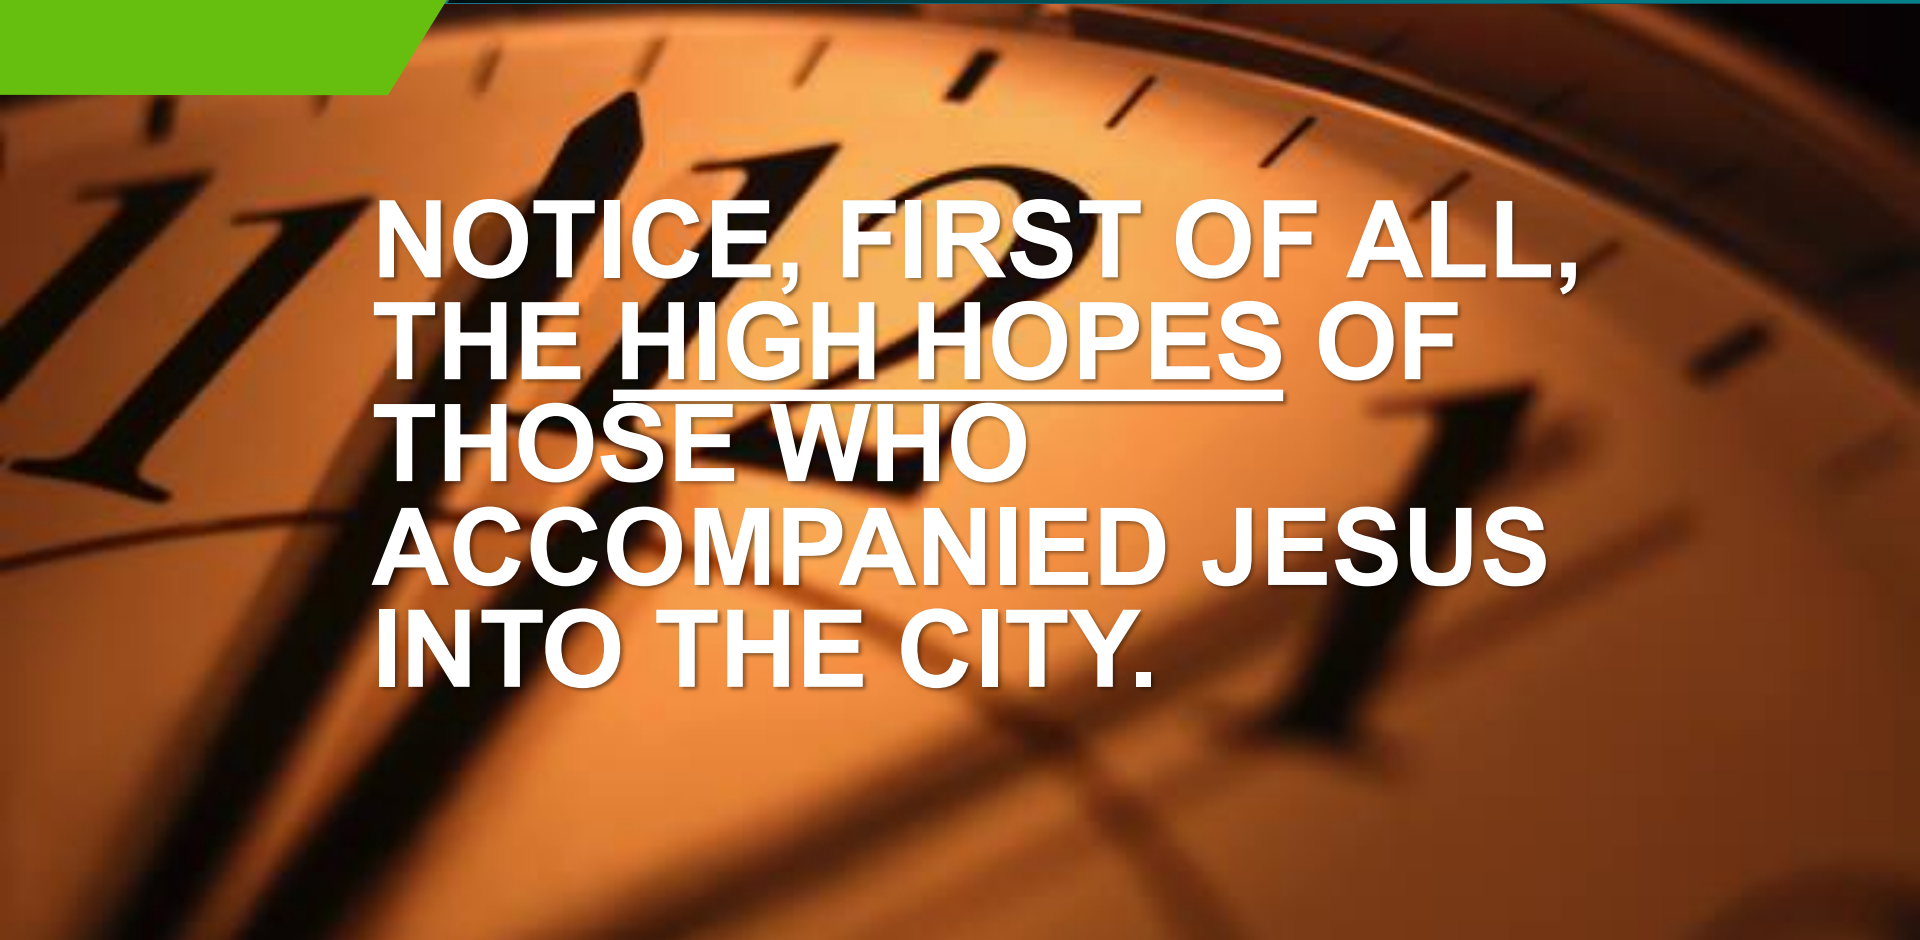

Mark 11:8-10

It's easy to shout;
what he needs is people willing to serve.

Past the Parade to a Passion of Participating

Mark 11:8-10

NOTICE, FIRST OF ALL,
THE HIGH HOPES OF THOSE WHO ACCOMPANIED JESUS
INTO THE CITY.

Past the Parade to a Passion of Participating

Mark 11:8-10

The people were ready for a change.

Past the Parade to a Passion of Participating

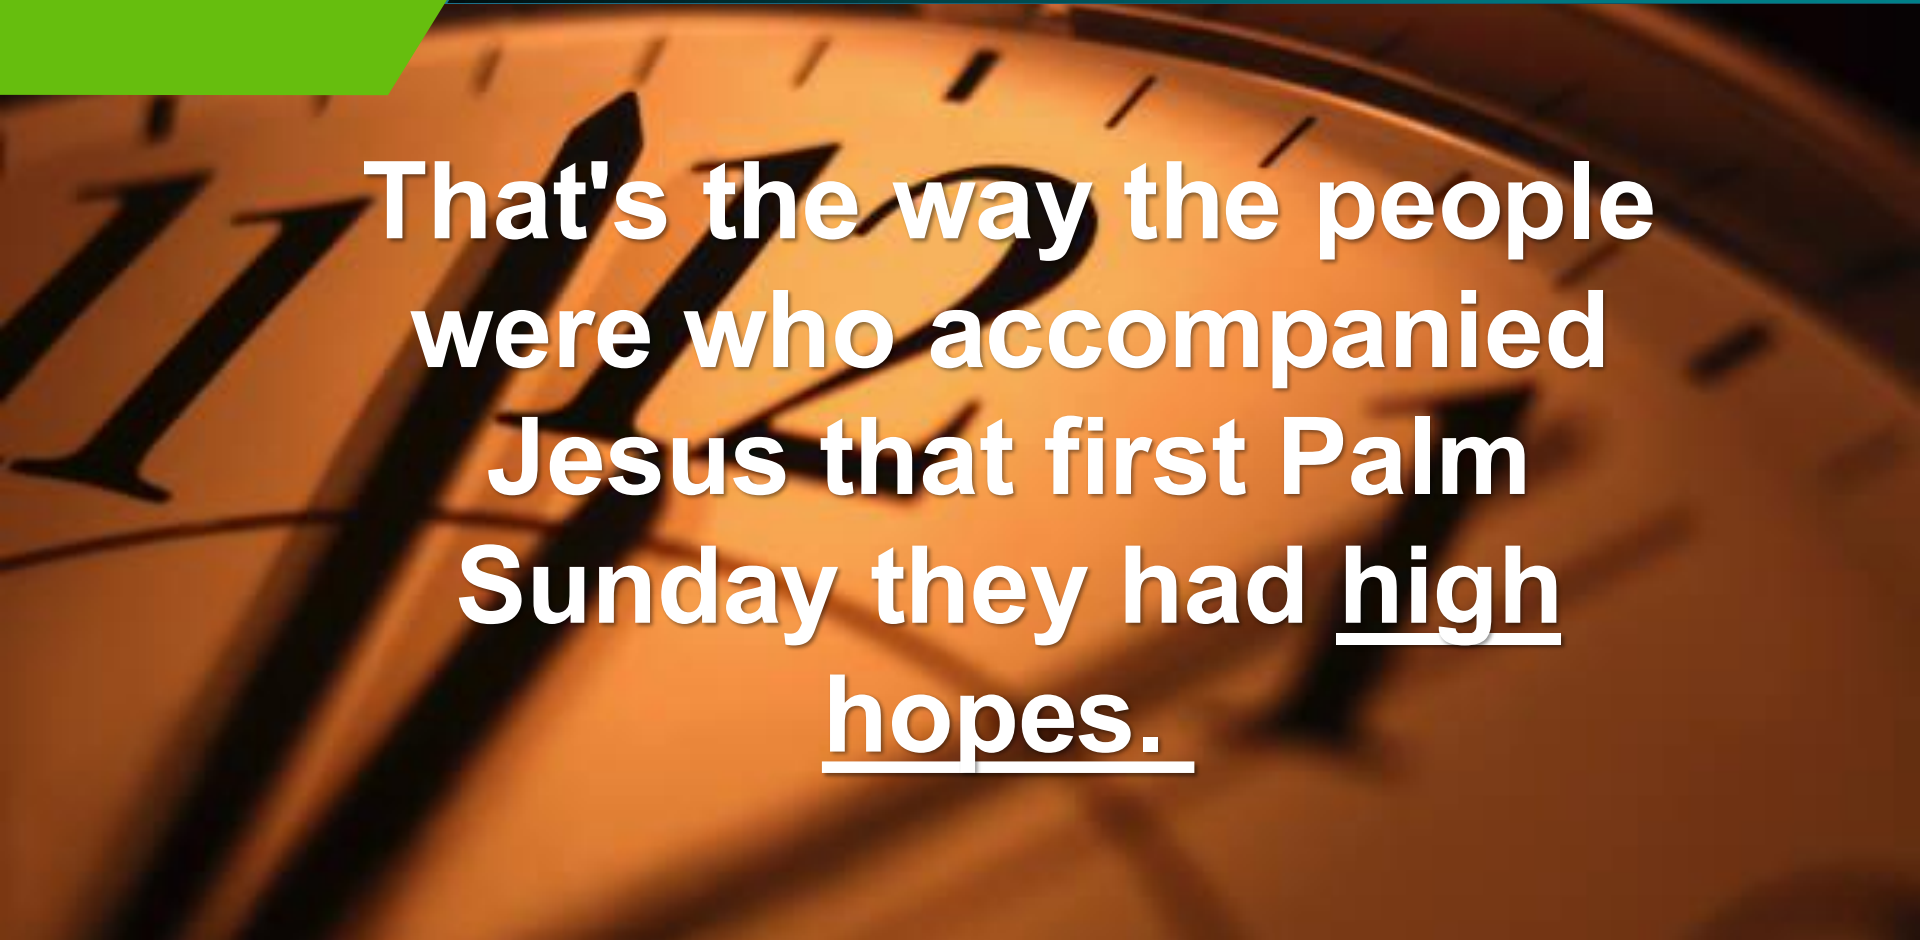

Mark 11:8-10

Tommy Tighe

Past the Parade to a Passion of Participating

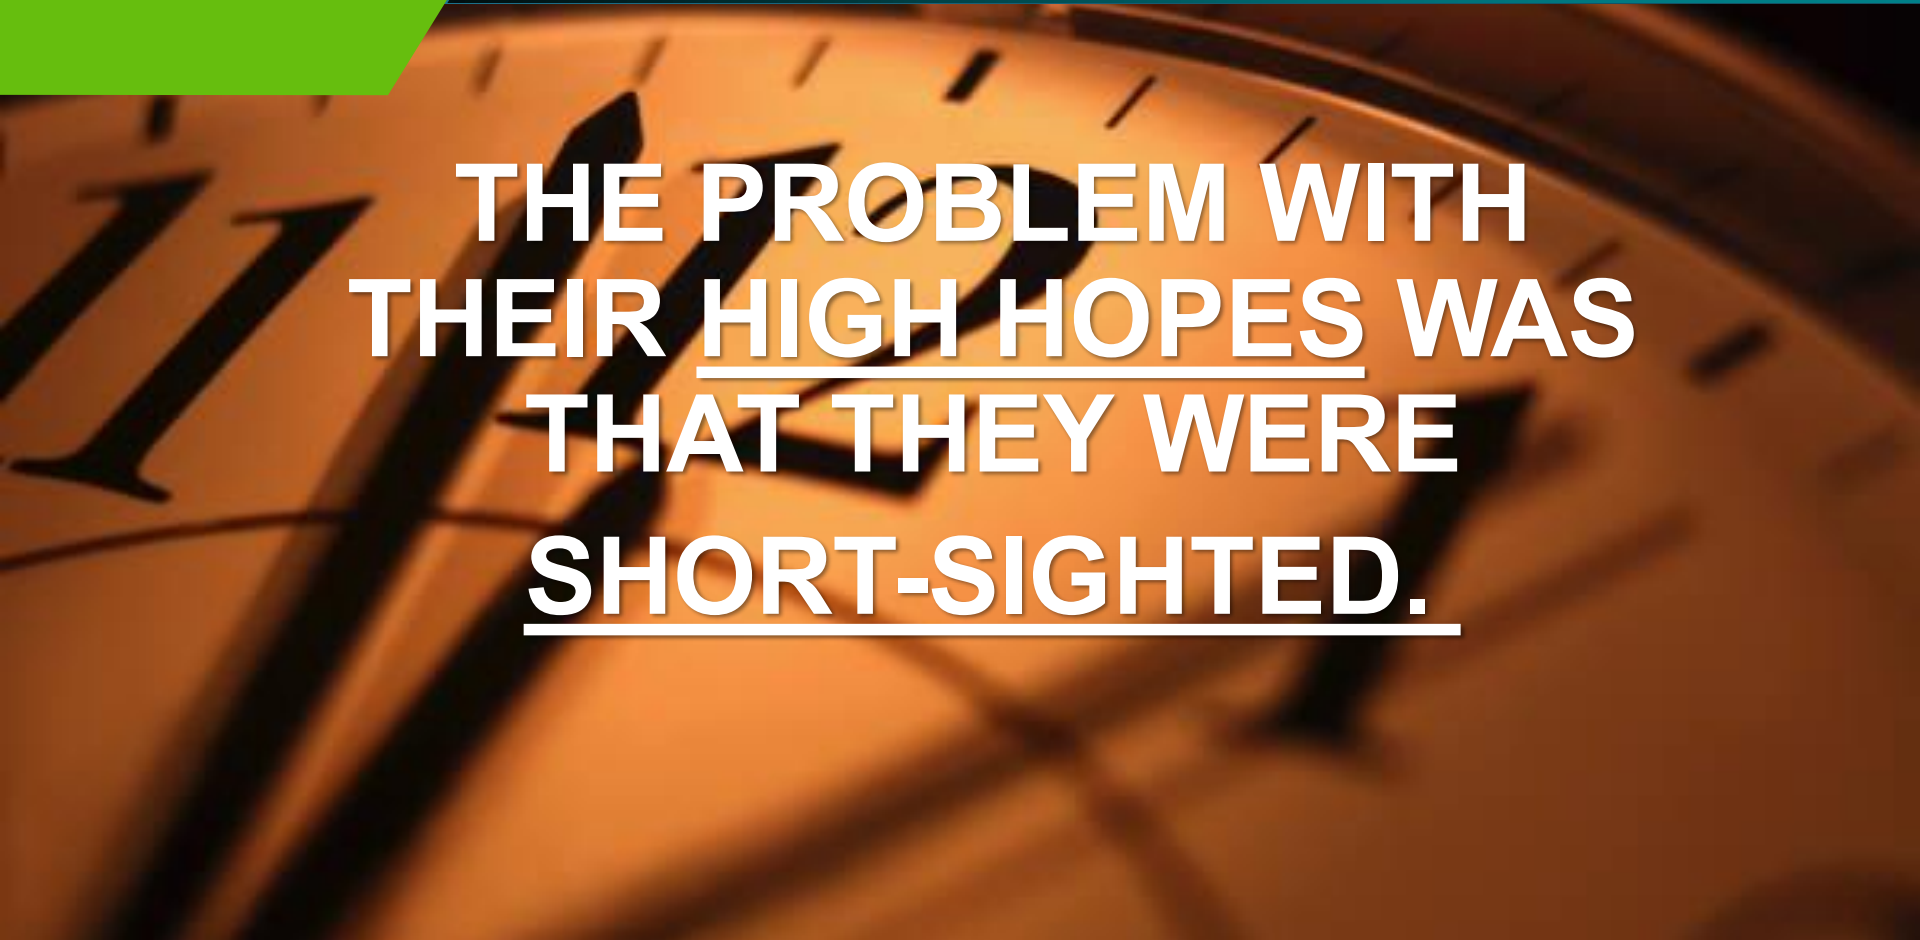

Mark 11:8-10

That's the way the people were who accompanied Jesus that first Palm Sunday they had high hopes.

Past the Parade to a Passion of Participating

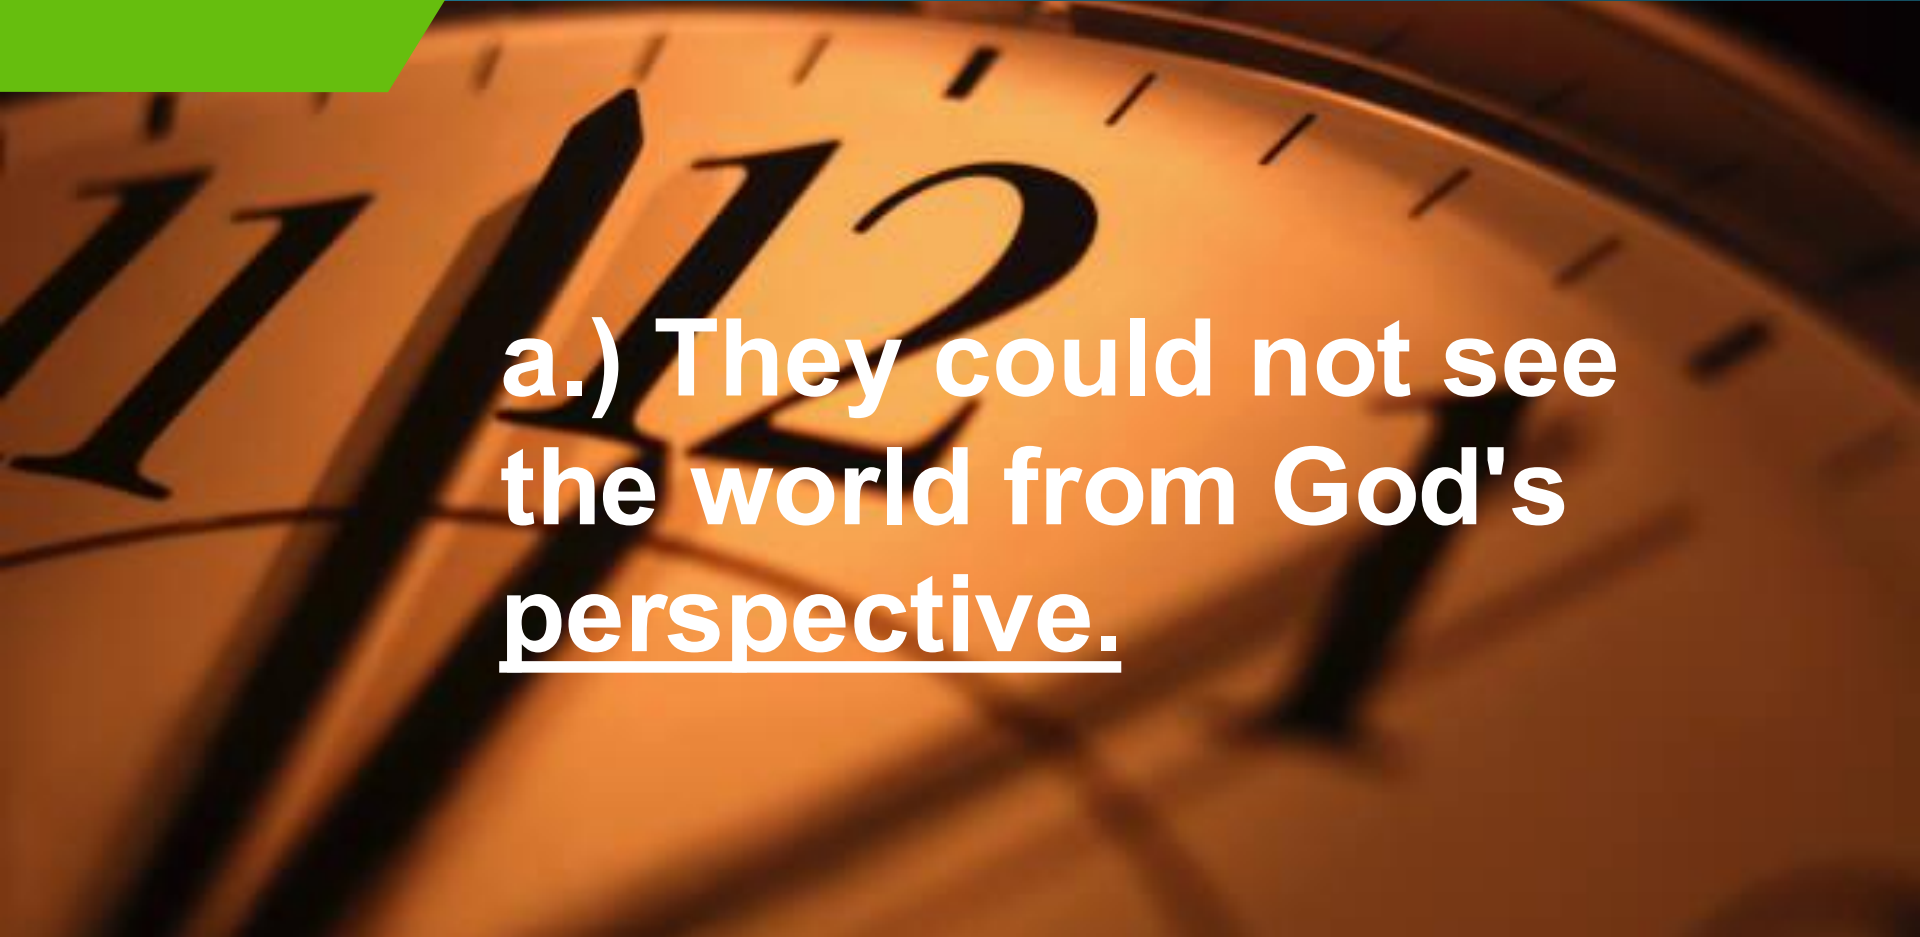

Mark 11:8-10

THE PROBLEM WITH THEIR HIGH HOPES WAS THAT THEY WERE SHORT-SIGHTED.

Past the Parade to a Passion of Participating

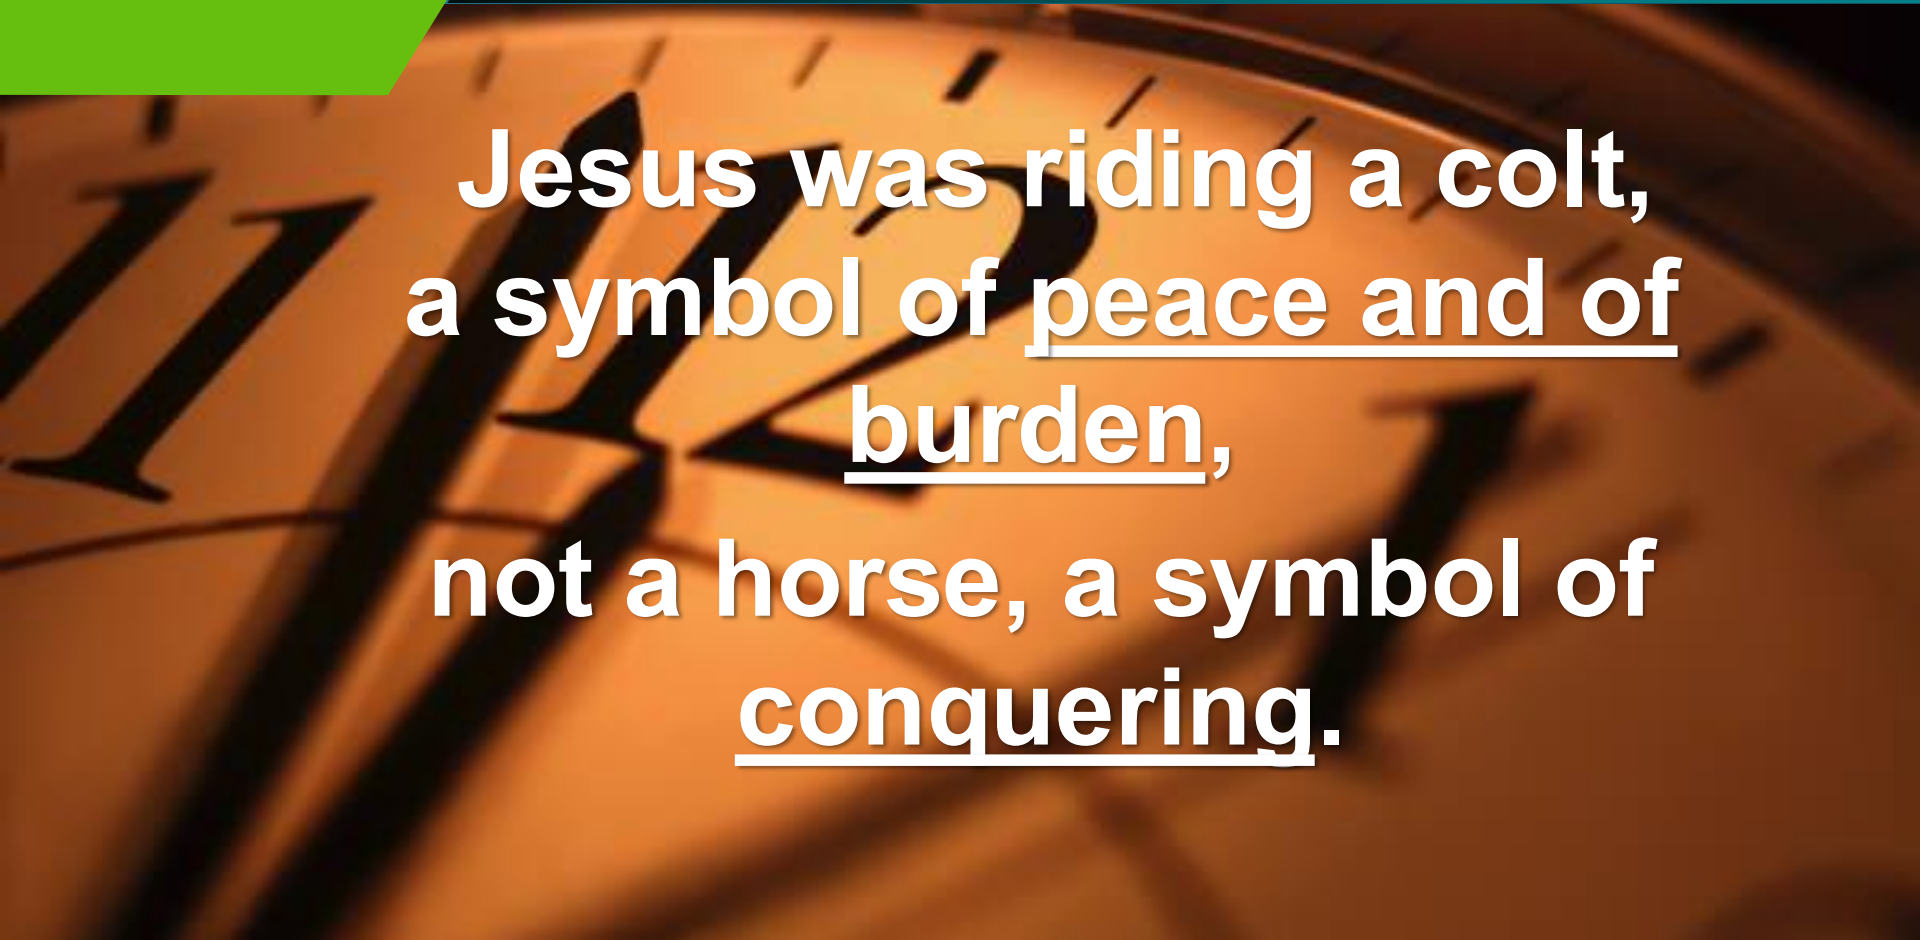

Mark 11:8-10

a.) They could not see the world from God's perspective.

Past the Parade to a Passion of Participating

Mark 11:8-10

Jesus was riding a colt,
a symbol of peace and of burden,
not a horse, a symbol of conquering.

Past the Parade to a Passion of Participating

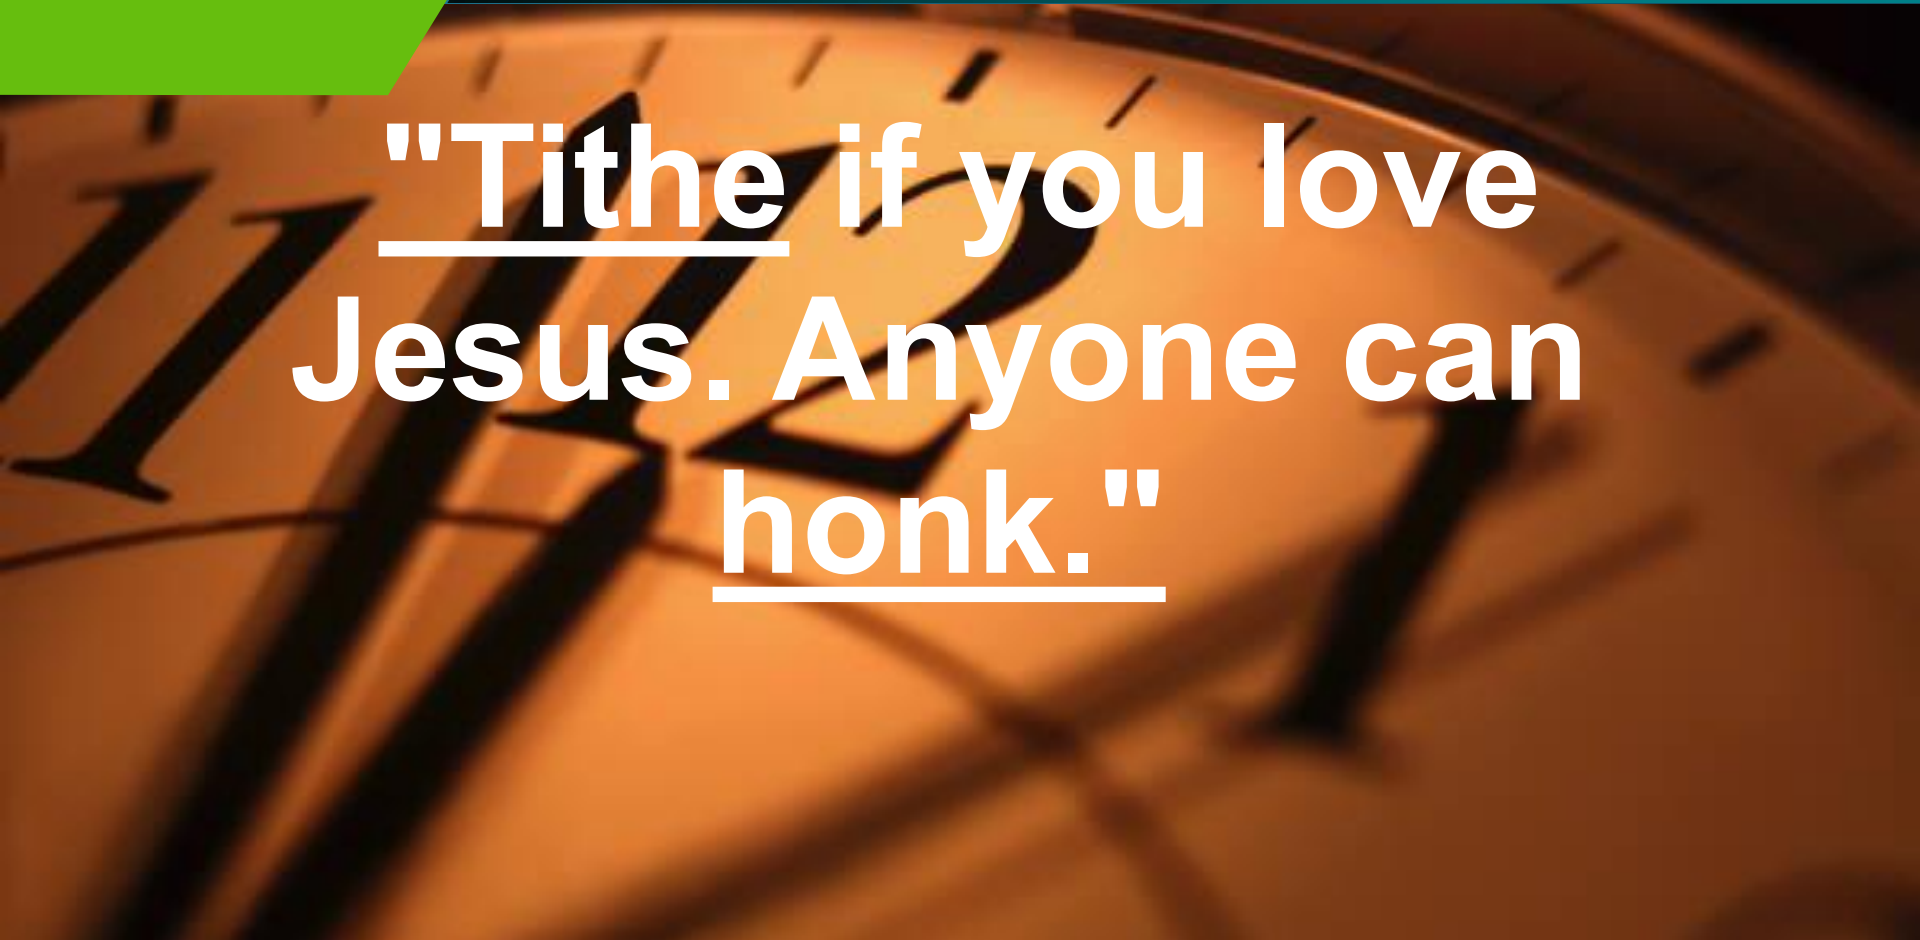

Mark 11:8-10

IT IS EASIER TO SHOUT THAN IT IS TO SERVE.

Past the Parade to a Passion of Participating

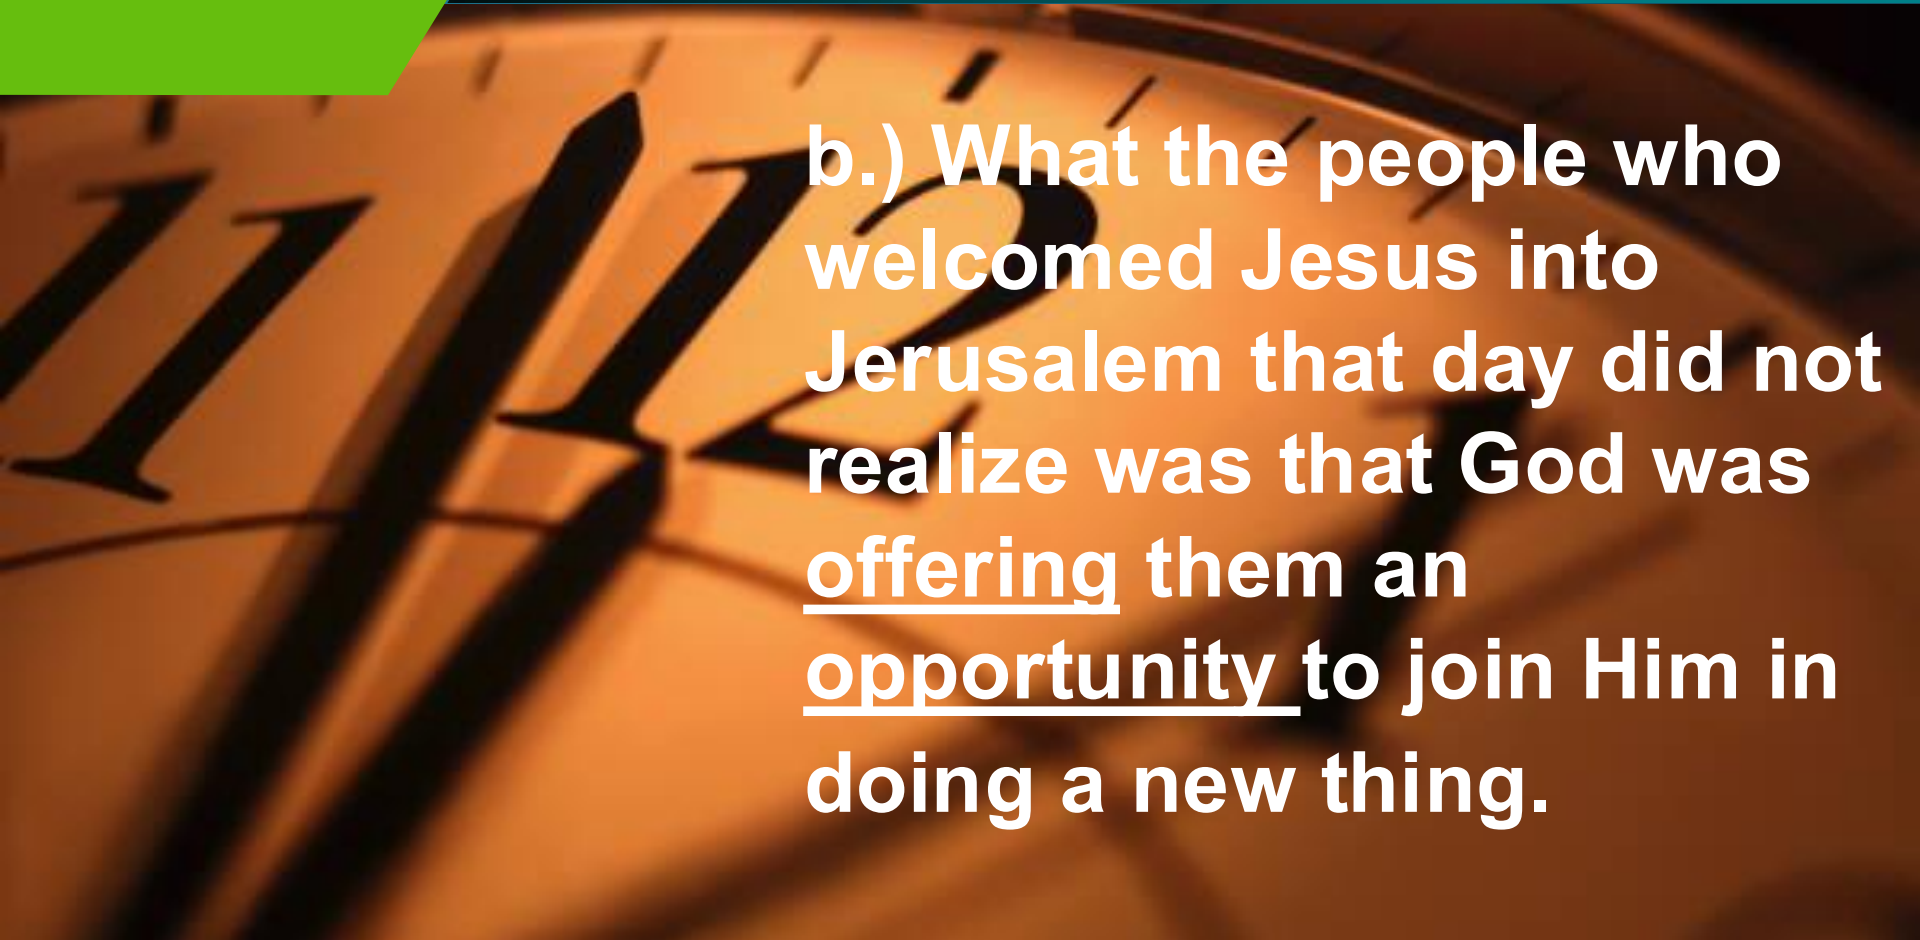

Mark 11:8-10

"Tithe if you love Jesus. Anyone can honk."

Past the Parade to a Passion of Participating

Mark 11:8-10

b.) What the people who welcomed Jesus into Jerusalem that day did not realize was that God was offering them an opportunity to join Him in doing a new thing.

Past the Parade to a Passion of Participating

Mark 11:8-10

Past the Parade to a Passion of Participating

Mark 11:8-10

