Pray for Jeff as he is currently in Zimbabwe visiting the three cities where they have begun local, indigenously-led study/training centers. This is Jeff's first international trip since a major illness four years ago. Pray for his health, recovery from jet lag, all the travel, and especially for great working relationships. Praise God for good news for Jeff's daughter, Lydia, who is recovering well after two years of treatment for lymphoma. Pray for her continued healing.
