Reflection during the week...

1. In what areas of my life am I pulling toward my own preferences, opinions, hurts, or comfort instead of pulling toward Jesus?
2. Jesus called us to be peacemakers, not peace avoiders. Is there a relationship or situation where I have been avoiding a difficult but necessary step toward peace?
3. Which area of peace needs the most attention in my life right now: peace with God, peace within myself, or peace with others? Why?
4. What is one act of obedience God may be asking me to take this week that could help create unity in my family, church, workplace, or relationships?
