

Absurd Absurdity

09/20/26

Ecclesiastes 1: ____ - ____

The question is whether our _____ can give us something _____ .

Is _____ all there _____ ?

_____ moves _____ .

Life with _____ gives _____ .

1 Corinthians 15: ____

Do _____ for the _____ of _____ .

1 Corinthians 10: ____ / Matthew 5: ____ - ____

We are _____ to be _____ .

Life with God gives even _____ moments
eternal _____ .

Absurd Absurdity

09/20/26

Ecclesiastes 1: ____ - ____

The question is whether our _____ can
give us something _____ .

Is _____ all there _____ ?

_____ moves _____ .

Life with _____ gives _____ .

1 Corinthians 15: ____

Do _____ for the _____ of _____ .

1 Corinthians 10: ____ / Matthew 5: ____ - ____

We are _____ to be _____ .

Life with God gives even _____ moments
eternal _____ .

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

- 1. Where does my life feel like “activity without arrival”? What routine, responsibility, or struggle has left me feeling tired, stuck, or unnoticed? How might God be present and at work even when I cannot see immediate results?
- 2. What am I expecting life “under the sun” to give me that only God can provide? Am I looking to success, comfort, relationships, possessions, or recognition for my identity and purpose? What would it look like to receive these things as gifts without allowing them to replace the Giver?
- 3. What ordinary part of my life could become an act of worship? Is there a task, responsibility, or relationship I have begun treating as something to simply get through? How would my attitude or actions change if I did it for the glory of God?
- 4. Where is God calling me to be light this week? Who around me needs encouragement, patience, forgiveness, service, or the hope of Jesus? What specific step can I take to help someone see God more clearly through the way I live?

[illegible]

- 1. Where does my life feel like “activity without arrival”? What routine, responsibility, or struggle has left me feeling tired, stuck, or unnoticed? How might God be present and at work even when I cannot see immediate results?
- 2. What am I expecting life “under the sun” to give me that only God can provide? Am I looking to success, comfort, relationships, possessions, or recognition for my identity and purpose? What would it look like to receive these things as gifts without allowing them to replace the Giver?
- 3. What ordinary part of my life could become an act of worship? Is there a task, responsibility, or relationship I have begun treating as something to simply get through? How would my attitude or actions change if I did it for the glory of God?
- 4. Where is God calling me to be light this week? Who around me needs encouragement, patience, forgiveness, service, or the hope of Jesus? What specific step can I take to help someone see God more clearly through the way I live?