Reflection during the week...

1. When you think about God as Father, what emotions or experiences come to mind? How have your experiences with earthly fathers or father figures shaped the way you view God, and what truths from this week's message challenge or encourage that view?
2. Which aspect of our Heavenly Father's character do you most need right now: His knowledge of you, His care for you, His shaping of you, or His presence with you? What would it look like to trust Him more deeply in that area this week?
3. Where are you tempted to carry a burden on your own instead of bringing it to your Heavenly Father? What is one practical step you can take this week to place that concern into His hands through prayer and trust?
