

What are you living for?

09/13/26

_____ over _____

It is possible to be _____ by God...

Without allowing _____ to _____ us.

_____ are we _____ for?

James 4: ____

He's confronting our _____ of _____ .

If my life is _____...what am I _____ it on?

Ecclesiastes 2: ____-____

A _____ thing can become a _____ thing

When it becomes the _____ thing.

Matthew 6: ____-____ / 2 Corinthians 5: ____

He _____ us from _____...but for a

_____ with God. / Romans 6: ____-____

What are you living for?

09/13/26

_____ over _____

It is possible to be _____ by God...

Without allowing _____ to _____ us.

_____ are we _____ for?

James 4: ____

He's confronting our _____ of _____ .

If my life is _____...what am I _____ it on?

Ecclesiastes 2: ____-____

A _____ thing can become a _____ thing

When it becomes the _____ thing.

Matthew 6: ____-____ / 2 Corinthians 5: ____

He _____ us from _____...but for a

_____ with God. / Romans 6: ____-____

[illegible]

- 1. What am I really living for? What receives the best of my time, energy, attention, and resources? What do those choices reveal about what has my heart?
- 2. What temporary thing am I asking to give me lasting meaning? Am I chasing success, comfort, approval, possessions, relationships, or something else that cannot ultimately satisfy me? How might God be inviting me to put that pursuit in its proper place?
- 3. Where am I choosing hype over heart? Am I seeking spiritual excitement without allowing God's truth to transform me? What is one truth from this sermon that God is asking me not only to hear, but to live out?
- 4. What have I been putting off until "later"? Is there something God has been calling me to surrender, change, begin, or make right? Knowing that my life is brief, what step of obedience can I take this week?

[illegible]

- 1. What am I really living for? What receives the best of my time, energy, attention, and resources? What do those choices reveal about what has my heart?
- 2. What temporary thing am I asking to give me lasting meaning? Am I chasing success, comfort, approval, possessions, relationships, or something else that cannot ultimately satisfy me? How might God be inviting me to put that pursuit in its proper place?
- 3. Where am I choosing hype over heart? Am I seeking spiritual excitement without allowing God's truth to transform me? What is one truth from this sermon that God is asking me not only to hear, but to live out?
- 4. What have I been putting off until "later"? Is there something God has been calling me to surrender, change, begin, or make right? Knowing that my life is brief, what step of obedience can I take this week?