

How Does God Speak to Us?

03/15/26

Once we understand that _____ ...

and that His voice is often _____ ... comes

How do I know the difference between _____

And every _____?

Spiritual skill: _____

Hearing the shepherd's voice was not about _____.

1. God will never _____.

Is it rooted in _____ or _____?

2. God will never _____ you to _____.

3. God's voice does not produce _____.

God is not the author of _____.

4. God's voice _____ but doesn't _____.

5. God's voice will never _____ His word.

6. God does not _____.

Reflection during the week:

1. What voices have been shaping my thinking lately? Are they leading me toward God’s truth and peace, or toward confusion and distance from Him?
2. How am I growing in familiarity with the Shepherd’s voice this week? What step can I take through Scripture, prayer, or quiet time to listen more closely to God?
3. When I face decisions this week, will I pause to ask: “Is this drawing me closer to the Shepherd or pulling me away?”

Verses for this week’s sermon are:

Judges 7:2, Philippians 4:13, 1 Kings 19:1–12, John 10:27, John 8:44, Numbers 23:19, Hebrews 6:18, James 1:13, 1 Corinthians 14:33, John 10:10, 1 John 4:1, and Hebrews 13:8
