Reflection during the week:

1. Where in my life am I tempted to follow Jesus only when it is comfortable or beneficial to me? What situation right now is testing whether my faith is based on convenience or true surrender?
2. Have I been expecting Jesus to meet my expectations... instead of trusting Him for who He truly is? Where might I be frustrated, disappointed, or resistant because God isn't working the way I wanted?
3. What does "taking up my cross" look like in a real, practical way this week? Is there a step of obedience, sacrifice, forgiveness, or trust that God is clearly calling me to take?
4. If my daily choices this week spoke louder than my Sunday worship... what would they say about my faith? Would my life reflect "Hosanna" or "Crucify Him"?
