

ACTS: A Movement Begins

04/26/26

Acts 1: ____ - ____

The gospel was what Jesus _____ to do...

Acts is what Jesus is _____ to do.

A Movement rooted in _____

A Movement dependent on the _____

The _____ of God...

cannot be sustained by _____ effort.

A Movement _____

Stop focusing on what _____

And focus on what _____

A Movement marked by _____ and _____

Reflection during the week:

1. Where am I currently being pulled by preference, comfort, or control—and what might obedience to God look like in that exact place this week?
2. The disciples were told to wait before they moved. Where in my life is God asking me to trust His timing instead of rushing ahead, and how am I responding to that?
3. Jesus redirected the disciples from what they wanted Him to do... to what He was calling them to do. Where might I be more focused on my expectations of God than my obedience to Him?
4. If I am called to be a witness—not just in words but in how I live—what is one specific way I can step into Spirit-empowered obedience this week, even if it feels uncomfortable?
