The Wrong Kind of Righteousness

Romans 10:1-4

I. A Heart That Longs for Salvation (v. 1)

A. His deep desire for the lost

B. His earnest prayer for their salvation

II. A Zeal that Lacks Understanding (vv. 2-3)

A. Their zeal was sincere but misguided

B. Their ignorance produced stubborn resistance

III. A Savior Who Provides Righteousness (v. 4)

A. Christ is the fulfillment of the law

B. Christ is the righteousness of everyone who believes

TAKE HOME:

- What am I really trusting in to make me right with God—my religious performance or the finished work of Jesus Christ?
- Is there an area of my life where I know God's truth but stubbornly refuse to submit to His authority?
- Who in my life am I earnestly praying for and actively seeking to reach with the gospel?
