¹⁰ Therefore David blessed the LORD in the presence of all the assembly. And David said: "Blessed are you, O LORD, the God of Israel our father, forever and ever. ¹¹ Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory and the majesty, for all that is in the heavens and in the earth is yours. Yours is the kingdom, O LORD, and you are exalted as head above all. ¹² Both riches and honor come from you, and you rule over all. In your hand are power and might, and in your hand it is to make great and to give strength to all. ¹³ And now we thank you, our God, and praise your glorious name.

¹⁴ "But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able thus to offer willingly? For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you. ¹⁵ For we are strangers before you and sojourners, as all our fathers were. Our days on the earth are like a shadow, and there is no abiding.^[e] ¹⁶ O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have provided for building you a house for your holy name comes from your hand and is all your own. ¹⁷ I know, my God, that you test the heart and have pleasure in uprightness. In the uprightness of my heart I have freely offered all these things, and now I have seen your people, who are present here, offering freely and joyously to you. ¹⁸ O LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, keep forever such purposes and thoughts in the hearts of your people, and direct their hearts toward you. ¹⁹ Grant to Solomon my son a whole heart that he may keep your commandments, your testimonies, and your statutes, performing all, and that he may build the palace for which I have made provision." ²⁰ Then David said to all the assembly, "Bless the LORD your God." And all the assembly blessed the LORD, the God of their fathers, and bowed their heads and paid homage to the LORD and to the king. ²¹ And they offered sacrifices to the LORD, and on the next day offered burnt offerings to the LORD, 1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams, and 1,000 lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel. ²² And they ate and drank before the LORD on that day with great gladness.

PRAYER REQUESTS

- Bob Hanson had emergency surgery for a brain bleed. The surgery went well and Bob will be moved to a rehabilitation center for continued recovery.
- Comfort for Anjie Dunn and family, at the death of her father.
- Eric Roley has requested prayer for a co-worker's family. Glen's 43-year-old son had a massive heart attack while running a marathon last Saturday.

⁴ Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his
courts with praise:
be thankful unto him,
and bless his name.

Psalm 100:4

Ladies' Prayer Group - We'll meet on Saturday, October 10th at 10:00 AM. All women are welcome to join us as we gather to pray to God for our deepest desires and needs, as well as for our congregation, for our nation, and for Christians around the world.

*Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will hear you.
You will seek me and find me, when you seek me with all your heart.*

- Jeremiah 29:12-13 (ESV)

Wednesday Evening Zoom Class will resume beginning October 14th. The Bible study will be on Prayer: The Voice of Faith. There is a workbook for the class. If you plan to attend, please see Phil Leupold for a copy of workbook.

Food Pantry & Clothing Bank - Our current wish list: breakfast items, spaghetti noodles, pasta sauce, and peanut butter. We appreciate all donations of non-perishable food items not past the "use by" date.

Our clothing bank can always use men's clothing with plain t-shirts and trousers of all types being taken quickly.

With cooler weather approaching, hats, scarves, and gloves will be helpful.

We do not accept any type of furniture, and no baby items such as car seats, highchairs, etc., due to safety and recall concerns.

Thank you!

"Here I am, Send me."

Scripture:

Isaiah 6:8 ESV "And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here I am! Send me."

Isaiah did not volunteer quickly. He saw the Lord. He saw holiness. He saw himself clearly. "Woe is me," he said. He knew his own unclean lips. Only after grace touched him did he speak. Cleansing preceded calling.

That order matters.

You step into witness because you have been changed. Grace has touched you. Mercy has covered you. Light has reached you.

When God asks, "Whom shall I send?" He is not searching for perfection. He is looking for willingness.

Many believers admire Isaiah's response but never say the words themselves. We respect the verse. We quote it. But quietly, we hope someone else will go. We tell ourselves that we need more preparation, more confidence, more clarity. Truthfully, we are reluctant and fearful.

Sending does not always mean crossing oceans. Often, it means crossing a room. It means stepping into the next honest conversation. It means refusing to let fear decide.

"Here am I" is not bravado. It is surrender.

You may not feel ready. Isaiah did not feel ready. Readiness is not the qualification. Availability is.

Let the words settle today: Here am I. Send me.

Are you placing any condition on your willingness to be sent?

Don J.

We are truly delighted to welcome Cindy Jacobs as the new meal coordinator for our WinGS program. Her willingness to serve in this role means so much to Lakeview.

Please join us in giving Cindy a heartfelt welcome as she begins organizing our meal program.

Cindy, thank you share sharing your time and care with WinGs – we are so grateful to have you!

If you are aware of any special meal-planning needs or would like to sign up for this important ministry, please reach out to Cindy or Windy West.

If you are not familiar with our WinGS (Women in God's Service) ministry or would like to join any of our service teams, please talk to Windy.

Fellowship Ministry: We organize congregational fellowships such as potlucks, 5th Sunday Singing meals, and the Harvest Festival's Chili Cook-Off.

Responsibilities include set-up, clean-up, decorating tables, selecting the type of food and drink to be served, as well as monitoring the serving line.

Benefits include building relationships amongst the team and the church members we serve.

If interested, please talk to Leann Glasman, contact the church office if you need her phone number.
