WELCOME/*CALL TO WORSHIP

Come as you are—with your joy and your weariness, your hope and your questions.

For in Jesus Christ, God entered fully into human life.

In Christ, God knew love and grief, hunger and exhaustion, sorrow and joy.

So come and worship the God who draws near in compassion.

Let us pray.

Holy God, in Jesus, You walked among us and shared our humanity.

Quiet our hearts. Move us from getting here to being here.

Teach us the way of compassion and grace. Amen.

*OPENING HYMN #262

Since Our Great High Priest, Christ Jesus

ALL SAINTS

CALL TO CONFESSION/PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Compassionate God, we confess that we often resist what is tender and true within us.

We hide our wounds, turn from the pain of others, and confuse holiness with perfection instead of love.

Forgive us for living disconnected—from ourselves, from one another, and from You.

Teach us the way of Christ, who emptied Himself in compassion and grace.

Make us more fully human, more fully loving, more fully Yours.
