

The Promised Christ Discussion Questions

John 1:4-13

Rev. Brian Bill

December 13-14, 2025

1. What about the Christmas story has you in wonder or awe?
2. Why is light and darkness important?
3. How does light make you feel? How does darkness make you feel?
4. What does it mean that Jesus is life? What does it mean that He is light?
5. How does light expose darkness?
6. Why can't you have light and darkness together? What does that mean for our spiritual lives?
7. Why is it important to shine the light of Christ to those we meet? Who are you sharing the light with?
8. What do you find interesting and telling about the light at Jesus birth and the darkness at His death?
9. Why does everyone have to decide on their own whether they will follow Christ or not? Why can't our parents, family, or friends make this decision for us?
10. What response do you have to Jesus? Do you ignore Him? Have you rejected Him? Have you received Him? Why did you make this decision?
11. What danger do we face by ignoring Christ or His instructions?
12. What danger is there in rejecting Him?
13. What danger is there in receiving Him?
14. What rights do we have children of God compared to those who aren't? What responsibilities come with being children of God?
15. Why do we have to be willing to relinquish control of our lives to God to receive Him into our lives?
