

Making Known His Glorious Splendor to the Generations

Notes

Psalm 145

Pastor Chris Rogers

November 29-30, 2025

Main Point: Knowing God should lead us to meditate on His glorious works, which should lead us to praising God's works to the generations.

Created in the Image of God

1. Being created in the image of God means you have _____ and worth.
2. As a born-again believers in Christ, this makes you my brothers and sisters, we are _____.

Psalm 145

1. King _____ wrote this Psalm.
2. It is a poem of praise.
3. Scholars believe this was the _____ Psalm David wrote.
4. He was able to see the faithfulness of God through it all.
5. The love that David had for God was not _____ upon receiving any blessing or winning any battle, David simply loved God for who He is.
6. This Psalm is actually written as an _____ using all the letters of the Hebrew alphabet as a structural feature in Hebrew poetry.

Reasons to Stand Together as Family in Praise

1. God's _____.
 - To extol is to lift high, to exalt, to raise up, to praise with _____.
 - True praise can only begin by _____ God as He has revealed Himself to be.
 - David's praise is not sporadic based on how he _____.
 - We are given this example that our time of worship is not confined to this building for sixty minutes on Sunday mornings.
 - One Hebrew word for praise gives the idea to "give thanks, or to _____."
 - A second word in the Old Testament is when we "_____ praise."
 - A third word, the root of hallelujah, means, "to praise, honor, or _____."
 - God's greatness is _____.
2. God's _____
 - David wanted to tell everyone, all generations.
 - The word "commend" means "to address in a _____ voice, shout, triumph, or glorify."
 - It is believed that Israel understood these works as the power to deliver them from slavery in _____ and bring them into the Promised Land.

- The greatest of God's works are His _____ works, His works of saving us from our sin through Christ.
- Our job is to passionately and faithfully _____ with the generations about how and why we praise God.
- Then, we pray for the Holy Spirit to _____ the hearts of the next generation near to God.
- You are all welcome to the table.

3. God's _____

- Moses found the Israelites had _____ from God and began worshipping a golden calf.
- Moses _____ the tablets and then ascended the mountain again to receive a second set of tablets.
- In a moment when Moses may have been expecting discipline, God reminded Moses who He is.
- Moses' response to having a right understanding of God's character was an immediate reaction of _____.

4. God's _____.

- It is this moment where both creation and mankind will join in unison and speak of the glory of God's kingdom and tell of His power.
- Kingdom refers to God's universal and continuous _____ over all creation.
- He is the King, and He will reign over all creation for _____.
- In Judges 2 7-10, tell how they lost the spiritual legacy they had in _____ generation.
- God's plan is for the gospel to be passed down to the next generation, for us to share how amazing God is with all generations, is placed on all of us.
- The only thing that endures time is God's _____. There is nothing that will stop God's plans.
- None of this is dependent upon anything we could possibly do.
- Our role is to worship God, to praise God.
- Our directive:
 - We _____ praises
 - Then we _____ on God's wondrous works
 - We _____ praise to God.