

Sending on Mission Discussion Questions

Isaiah 6:1-8

Rev. Brian Bill

June 7-8, 2025

1. Where would you say you are on your journey and why? Are you still depraved? Are you saved but haven't surrendered? Have you surrendered your life? Are you going with the gospel?
2. Ready Isaiah 6:1-4. When you visualize being in the scene in Heaven what is your reaction? Is it awe? Is it fear? Is it shame? What is it and why?
3. Read Isaiah 6:5. What was Isaiah's response to what he saw and why?
4. Read Isaiah 6:-6-7. Why did the seraphim touch Isaiah's mouth with a hot coal? What did this represent?
5. What is the question that is asked in Isaiah 6:8? Why is the Lord asking this question?
6. What is Isaiah's response to this question? What is your response to this question?
7. Read Matthew 9:36-38. What did the Lord see when He looked out at the crowd? What do you see when you are in a crowd of people? Do you see the same thing and Jesus? Why or why not?
8. What keeps us from seeing people the way Jesus does? What can we do to remind ourselves to look at people the way He does? How does this change the way we treat people?
9. Why does Jesus say to pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest? Why didn't He just tell them to go? What do you think will happen if you start to pray for laborers for God's harvest? Does this make you nervous, scared, excited, etc.?
10. Do you have the peace God gives us? Have you been going about His purposes? Why or why not?
11. Right now, how willing would you be to leave your home, extended family, and friends, to go to a place God called you to go? Why?
12. Are you supporting with your finances those who are willing to go? If so, why are you doing this? What blessing do you get from supporting them? If not, why aren't you?
13. Are you giving to missions as an excuse not to go yourself? How do you know if you are supposed to go?
14. How is sending someone into the harvest a sacrifice?
15. Read Romans 10:13-15. Does this verse bring you conviction? Why or why not?
16. Why does this passage describe the feet of those who go as beautiful?
17. Who are you going to take the gospel to this week? How is God directing you to give towards missions?
18. How will your prayers be affected by this message this week?
