DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

What stood out to you from this passage of Scripture as it was preached?

Have there been times in your life ... when you grew impatient along the way?

- What were the circumstances?
- Did it lead to complaining?
- What was the outcome?
- What lessons did you learn from it afterward?

Have you ever spoken against the Lord?

After the Israelites spoke against Moses ... what do you think it was like for Moses when the Israelites asked him: "Pray to the Lord, that he take away the serpents from us."

God is holy, righteous, and just.

God is also merciful, abounding in grace, and loves unconditionally.

What goes through your head and heart as you process this?

If an Israelite wanted to live after being bitten by a snake, the person needed to believe what God said – look at the bronze serpent. Today, if a person wants to be saved from their sins, they need to believe what God has said – look at Jesus. Why do you think this is difficult for some people today to believe?

What can you apply from this passage of Scripture in your life?
