Main Point: Worthy is the Lamb who was slain.

Background

1. The phrase “myriads of myriads” was the _____ number the Greeks had in their language.
2. The idea is that even if one were to take the greatest number in antiquity and multiply it by itself again and again, it still wouldn’t capture the _____.
3. Their worship is loud and centers on the _____, or weightiness, of the Lamb (vs. 12).
4. The Lamb was slain on Good Friday and is now _____ as a result of Resurrection Sunday.
5. The Lamb receives praise for seven attributes, which is the _____ or complete number in Revelation.
6. The lamb was slaughtered and died but He is now standing _____.
7. He’s standing _____ over death, over our depravity, and over the devil!
8. Now, every part of creation joins in.
9. The word “every” means “the _____.”
10. That’s the Easter movement: from tears to triumph, from weeping to _____.
11. The word “angel” appears _____ times in Revelation.
12. The title “lamb” for Jesus appears _____ times in Revelation.

The Angels Rejoicing

1. Before sin ever entered the world, angels were already _____ at creation (Job 38:7).

The Humans Rebelling

1. The first hint of the need for a lamb to be sacrificed came when Adam and Eve _____, and the world changed instantly, bringing death and creating distance from God.
2. Yet even in the middle of that tragedy, God established the _____ of redemption (Genesis 3:21).
3. We see the principle of _____: the innocent dying in the place of the guilty.
4. After Adam and Eve were driven out of the Garden of Eden, God stationed _____ angels to guard the way to the Tree of Life (Genesis 3:24).

The Lamb Redeeming

1. The Lord Himself would provide the substitute sacrifice for _____ (Genesis 22:7-8).

2. The lamb had to die so the firstborn could _____.
3. None of them could truly _____ away sin.
4. Centuries later, angels started working overtime when they made life-changing _____ to Zechariah, Mary, and Joseph.
5. Throughout the life of Jesus, angels appeared at key moments.
 - After Jesus defeated Satan in the _____, angels came and ministered to Him.
 - In the Garden of Gethsemane, when the weight of the cross pressed upon Jesus, and angel strengthened Him.
 - Even at the cross Jesus said He could call on twelve _____ (72,000) of angels if He wanted to be rescued.

The Lamb Rising

1. On the morning of the resurrection, after rolling away the stone, the angels became the first _____ of the resurrection (Luke 24:5-6).
2. Jesus is the _____ over death, not the victim of death.
3. He didn't just survive death; He used death to _____ death, to dismantle our depravity, and to defeat the devil (Revelation 1:17-18)!

The Lamb Reigning

1. He rose to take His _____ place at the center of the universe's throne.
2. What looked like utter defeat on Friday became unchallenged _____ by Sunday morning (Hebrews 1:6).

The Lamb Returning (Acts 1:11)

1. When the Lamb returns as the _____, Matthew 24:31 says the angels will gather the elect and 2 Thessalonians 1:7-8 says they will accompany Him.

The Angels Rejoicing

1. The angels who watched creation, who guarded Eden, who provided for Abraham, who filled the skies above Bethlehem, and announced the resurrection, are now gathered around the throne worshiping the Lamb as He prepares to _____.
2. They are _____ by the wonder of salvation because that's something they can never personally experience.
3. This phrase "long to look" carries the idea of " _____ down, peering intently, or leaning over with curiosity" (1 Peter 1:10-12).
4. This makes every conversion on earth a cause for Heavenly _____ (Luke 15:10).
5. The angels don't just watch passively; they share in the joy because they see the glory of the gospel unfolding in real time.
6. Every conversion _____ the worth of the Lamb who purchased people for God from every tribe, language, people, and nation (Revelation 5:9).
