

Don't Wait to Live Discussion Questions

Ecclesiastes 11:1-10

Rev. Brian Bill

November 9-10, 2024

1. How can you miss opportunities to serve with what you have because you are so focused on things or abilities you don't have? Can you share an example?
2. Why do we need to do good things even if it may seem risky?
3. Why is it important to diversify your giving?
4. Do you see yourself as a generous giver or not? Why?
5. What are some things you can't control? How do you still try to control those things? Why do we need to accept the things we can't control?
6. Do you tend to wait until the time is right to do things? Why or why not? What can happen if you wait too long?
7. How can over-analyzing things cause you to be paralyzed and not do anything?
8. Is it good to analyze things? If so, why? How do we know when we are over analyzing something?
9. Do you have a tough time sharing your faith with others? Why or why not? If you do have a tough time, what are some things you can do to make it easier to share your faith?
10. Do we fully understand how God creates life in the womb? Do we know everything about the wind? Do we need to understand everything in order to know God is in control and can be trusted? Why or why not?
11. Do we need to completely understand how God works in people's lives to bring them to salvation in order to share the gospel with them? Do we need to completely understand everything in God's word to share the gospel? What do we need to understand and be able to communicate?
12. How can we be joyful when the days are dark, when things aren't going according to our plan?
13. What joy do you get from serving others?
14. How do we benefit if we keep in mind that there is a judgment coming for everything we do?
15. How does resentment affect people's lives? Why is it wise to get rid of resentment?
16. What benefits are there from remembering that life is short?
17. How can our decision impact the rest of our lives? How does it impact those around us?
18. How can these seven things (doing whatever you want, living outside your means, feeding an addiction, running with fools, believing life is all about me, living for immediate gratification, and avoiding accountability) ruin your life?
19. What bold step will you take in your faith today?
20. Who will you share the gospel with today?
