Revelation 9:1-21

Rev. Brian Bill

May 23-24, 2026

1. Do you like to pick out verses to embrace? Why or why not? Are there verses you don't like? What are they? Why must we obey and follow the entire Bible, not just the verses we like?
2. Does anyone fully understand everything that is in the Bible? Why not? How do we gain more understanding of God's Word?
3. Have the last couple of sermons stirred up fear in you? Why or why not? Do Christians have anything to fear? Why or why not? Does God want us to be afraid? If we are not Christians, should we be afraid? Why or why not?
4. Are there ranks in the demon world? What makes you believe this?
5. Does Satan get to keep the key he was given to open the bottomless pit? Why or why not?
6. Read Revelation 9:4-12. How does God show that He is in control even with the release of these "locusts?" Why doesn't God allow them to harm any grass, trees, or green plants? Why doesn't He allow them to touch those that are sealed by God?
7. Why would God make people to suffer for 5 months and not be able to die? What are some things you think people will try to do to end this suffering?
8. Why do these locusts have a leader? What is he directing them to do? Why? How does this show that Satan does not care for people and just wants to destroy?
9. What do you think Jesus is doing at the altar before giving the command to release the four angels? Do you think this has any impact on this trumpet judgement?
10. Do you think the four angels that are bound are "good" angels or "fallen" angels? Why?
11. Where else in the Bible is the Euphrates River mentioned? What occurred near the Euphrates? Could these things be tied to the 6th trumpet and the judgment that comes with it? Does this judgment only occur in the region around the Euphrates or to the entire world? Explain your answer.
12. How is God still showing mercy with these two judgements? Are people accepting God's mercy? Why or why not?
13. Why are people worshipping demons in the last days instead of God? Why will there be more idol worship during that time?
14. What explains the reason for a higher rate of murder and stealing? What explains the use of drugs? What explains the higher level of sexual immorality?
15. Will people still have a sense of right and wrong? Why or why not? Will people care to do the right thing?
